TWA PUTS CITY ON NEW COAST TO COAST LINE

Files Application To Start Service In Mansfield, 14 Other Ohio Cities.

FIRST DEFINITE PLAN

Airlines Head Says Project Would Connect City With Major Centers.

Application to provide trunk line coast-to-coast air service to Mansfield, along with 14 other cities in Ohio, was filed by Transcontinental and Western Air Incorporated, with the Civil Aeronautics board in Washington today.

The service is part of the airline's plan for the development of the nation's air transport system embracing 95 additional cities.

Jack Frye, president of T. W. A. in a telegram to James R. Harrington, president of Harrington Air Service, Incorporated, advising him of the developments said:

"May I invite your attention to applications which are being filed immediately by TWA with the CAB for additional route stops and new routes which if approved will provide integrated transcontinental airline service to Mansfield. These applications contemplate transcontinental airline service to nearly 100 cities on our main route not present served by TWA service between Mansfield and the cities TWA presently serve plus the nearly 100 new cities will stimulate materially the transportation development of your sister by being closer to every major city on our transcontinental route. Particulars will subsequently be forwarded to you."

The proposal is the first definitely offering Mansfield direct airline connections, although United Air lines and American Air lines, have signified that they would be interested in scheduling stops here should adequate airport facilities be provided.

Greyhound lines and the Yellow Cab company, have filed application with the CAB requesting permission to make Mansfield a stop in a post-war intercity helicopter taxi-service.

TWA seeks authority to link the proposed stops with cities it already serves by creating a series of new routes which would parallel existing trunk routes. TWA's present route structure of 6,354 miles would be increased to approximately 10,994.

The company proposes to increase its present service to Columbus, Cincinnati, Toledo and Dayton, and to bring daily coast-to-coast schedules to Mansfield along with Canton, Cleveland, Ironton, Lima, Marion, Massillon, Newark, Zanesville, Portsmouth,

'This Is the Army' Ducats on Sale at Hut In Park Today

In a steel hut used for housing fighting units overseas, tickets for "This Is the Army," which will have its premier at the Ohio theater here Sept. 24, will go on sale today.

The hut made at Stran-Steel corporation will lend a war atmosphere to the sale of tickets for this benefit performance, the proceeds of which will go to the Army Emergency Relief.

Mrs. Gilbert Dobson will be in charge of the booth and working with her will be 16 girls, 10 of them employes of the Stran Steel corporation. The hut will be open from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily.

PLAY ABROAD

Two All-Star Teams to Go Into Pacific Area for Games.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The war department announced today that two all-star baseball teams from the National and American leagues will play a series of interleague games for troops overseas in the Pacific theater.

The announcement was made at the office of Major General A. D. Surles, the department's public relations director, in the presence of Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, whose offer to send the teams was accepted by the department.

Puts Army Need at 7,700,000 Men

General Warns Change Would Force U. S. To Alter Military Strategy as He Faces Senate Committee.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson today called for enactment of a national service act to recruit industrial manpower and help bring the war to a quick and successful conclusion.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Lt. Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, deputy chief of staff, told senators today that an army of 7,700,000 by the end of this year is "the minimum force required for the tasks ahead" and warned that any reduction would necessitate a change in the nation's strategical commitments.

McNarney was the first of an all-star procession of high army and navy officials called before the senate military committee to testify on the need for further enlargement of our fighting forces.

Congressional leaders have indicated the decision on whether to deter or end the general drafting of fathers will hinge on high command "justification" for such enlargement.

Gen. McNarney said the 7,700,000-man army figure had been approved by his chief, Gen. George C. Marshall. The deputy chief of staff added.

"The collapse of Italy does not affect these figures."

He said that on Sept. 1 the army's strength was approximately 7,300,000 officers and men. Inductions for the rest of the year, he said, will vary from 145,000 to 175,000 a month, but he explained

Beat Off New Nazi Blows In Blazing Fight

Eisenhower Asserts Troops Forced to Yield Some Ground, Help's Now Arriving Swiftly; Ninth Army Rumored Moving on Balkans.

BULLETIN

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS—(UP)—Italian soldiers are aiding British forces in the Taranto area on the heel of the Italian boot, where the first German parachute division was contacted around Gioia, 30 miles northwest of Taranto.

(By Associated Press)

American Fifth army troops were credited today with beating off violent German counter-attacks in the blazing seven-day-old battle of Salerno in Italy, but despite the arrival of fresh reinforcements the Allies have been forced back at some points for the second time in 24 hours.

"Determined counter-attacks have been carried out by both sides," a communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced.

"In some places our troops have been forced to yield ground, but new positions are being consolidated and reinforcements continue to arrive rapidly.

"Bitter fighting continues."

Frontline dispatches said the Americans were launching strong counter-assaults, stopping vicious Nazi thrusts against the dead center of the Allied bridgehead, and for the moment at least were weathering the gravest crisis in the Italian campaign.

Ground was yielded in order to straighten the American lines, the dispatches said.

The daily war bulletin said powerful sea-borne reinforcements were being landed all along a 27-mile coastal stretch from Salerno southward to Agropoli.

Capture of the famed Isle of Capri was also announced. Capri lies just off the tip of Sorrento peninsula which forms one arm of the Bay of Naples.

Allied cruisers and warships hurled tons of shells into German positions on the mainland all day yesterday, a communique said.

German headquarters acknowledged that Allied troops who had been thrown back yesterday at Eboli, 13 miles southeast of Salerno and nine mines inland from the sea, "again put up resistance close to the coast" under cover of naval gunfire.

The Nazi command asserted, however, that German troops scored "great successes" in attacks in which "one enemy group was encircled and another one was destroyed."

In the south, British Eighth army troops racing up the coast to ease the pressure on Lt.-Gen. Mark W. Clark's hard-fighting U. S. Fifth army were officially described as having reached Belvedere, only 67 airline miles from Agropoli.

Allied warplanes supporting the attack made more than 2,000 sorties from dawn yesterday to dawn today.

Simultaneously unconfirmed reports reaching London declared the powerful British Ninth army was on the move from its Middle East bases facing the invasion route to Greece and the Balkans.

A dispatch to the Stockholm newspaper Svenska Dagbladet from Ankara, Turkey, said Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson's Ninth army had embarked for an "unknown destination."

British military officials in London withheld comment on the report. An Algiers radio broadcast, however, said "important new military developments are imminent" and pointed out that the surrender of the Italian navy had cleared the Mediterranean for an assault on Ger-

TAX RATE IN 22 DISTRICTS CUT

Other 18 Districts Remain Same, Says Auditor; Sharon Has Biggest Drop.

Property owners in 22 of the 40 taxing districts in Mansfield and Richland county will pay a lower tax rate in 1944 and for the first time in recent years there will be no increase in rates in any county district, under the tentative rate schedule announced today by County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe.

Final rates will not be set up until after the November election and with a number of communities voting on tax levies, it's possible that some of the rates will move upward slightly then, the auditor said.

Regardless of the fate of the two-tenths mill recreation program levy which will be voted on in Mansfield, the city's rate will be lower in 1944. The new rate, with the recreation levy added, will be 16 mills as compared with 16.20 mills this year. Debt reduction helped to bring the rate down, Wolfe said.

Probably the greatest reductions in the county will be in Sharon township where the rate will drop from 11.40 to 9 mills and in Lexington which will pay 19.60 mills next year as against 20.80 mills in 1943. The Lexington rate however, will remain the highest in the county with Lucas a close second.

Other districts which will have

START MAILING

Overseas Christmas Parcels Go In Mails Today.

Mansfielders were doing their Christmas shopping early today as they bought presents for men and women in service overseas to be mailed beginning today.

Postal authorities have designated the month between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15 for the mailing of Christmas gifts overseas. After the latter date such parcels may not be mailed unless a written request from the soldier is presented for each parcel.

Regulations for mailing Christmas parcels designate that the package is to be no more than 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and width combined. It must not exceed five pounds and is to be labeled "Christmas Parcel." The parcel must be securely packaged and perishable good, intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons, and anything that may damage other mail are prohibited.

BATTLE BLAZE

Coastguardsmen Aid In 4-Hour Fight Against Dock Fire.

BOSTON — (INS) — Firemen, aided by coastguardsmen, fought a spectacular four-alarm fire in a coal pocket and unloading dock in Boston's south end today.

The fire still was burning four hours after it was discovered this morning but had been brought under control. No injuries were reported.

Clark Directs Salerno Landing

This is the first picture to be received in the United States of Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark, commander of the American Fifth army, since the leader of the American invasion forces at Salerno, below Naples. Clark, left, confers with Vice Admiral H. K. Hewitt, commanding U. S. Mediterranean forces, during landing operations.

MEET ON NEW PORT HURDLE

C. of C. and City Officials To Confer With Utilities on Removal of Lines.

The Mansfield Chamber of Commerce will join city officials Friday in an attempt to clear another hurdle in the path of the new airport project by conferring with utility company officials on the removal of telephone and power lines in the area to be occupied by the enlarged landing field.

Representatives of the Ohio Bell Telephone company, American Telephone and Telegraph company, Mansfield Telephone company, and Ohio Public Service company have been asked to meet with city officials and the Chamber of Commerce airport committee at 2 p. m. Friday in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Co-operation of the utility firms in the prompt removal of surface lines that would be a hazard to the airport operation will be sought, said John G. Routzon, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Meanwhile, Mayor W. J. Locke said he had received verbal approval of the state highway de-

BOY, 7, KILLED

Bucyrus Child Dies When Hit By Train; Pal Escapes.

BUCYRUS — Crossing the Pennsylvania railroad tracks on their way home to supper last night, seven-year-old Roger Mollencop and his pet cocker spaniel were killed at 5:20 p. m. by the eastbound Manhattan Limited as they waited for a west-bound freight to pass.

The Mollencop boy with a friend, Donald Healy, 7, had been playing at the home of Fred Baer and were on their way home. The Healy boy escaped injury as he stepped from the tracks a few seconds before the engine struck his playmate.

Moving to Bucyrus two years ago with his mother, Delores Mollencop, the boy was a second grader at Crawford school. His mother is the only survivor.

Five Soldiers From Richland Area Among Pacific Wounded

Five Richland county area soldiers, at least one of them a member of Ohio's 37th Division which took part in the recent capture of the Jap-held Munda base on New Georgia island in the southwest Pacific, were reported wounded in action today.

A former member of Battery D, Ohio National Guard, which was federalized in the fall of 1940, Cpl. Lewis C. Deamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Deamer, Lincoln heights, was reported wounded on Aug. 17, his parents had been informed today.

Although casualty lists released by the war department failed to disclose units to which the other four were attached, it was assumed that they were also with the 37th. All were reported wounded in action in the southwest Pacific.

They included, Cpl. Donald E. Sours, son of Mrs. Eugene C. Sours, Jeromesville; Sgt. Clarence M. Baker, son of George W. Baker, Ashland R. D. 5; John I. Bish, son of Mrs. Myrtle Bish of Greenwich, and Pvt. Don F. Speaks, son of Mrs. Beatrice P. Speaks, Mt. Vernon.

Cpl. Deamer enlisted in the O. N. G. shortly before the guard unit was federalized in the fall of 1940. He has been overseas since May, 1942.

Mr. and Mrs. Deamer, the day before receiving word that their son had been wounded, received a Japanese rifle he had sent home with a message that there was a "big story" connected with the souvenier.

President Draws Up War Report

Expected to Say Worst Fighting Ahead In Talk Friday.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON — President Roosevelt today was drawing up a progress report on the war which he will lay before congress and the American people Friday.

The chief executive's message is expected to be one of the most serious over-all pronouncements he has voiced in many months.

He is expected to tell congress and the nation that while American arms have been blessed with many important victories thus far, both in the Mediterranean theater and in the Far East, the bloodiest and most crucial fighting lies ahead.

Mr. Roosevelt, it is believed, will remind the nation that while casualties and losses were quite small in the North Africa and Sicily victories, heavy casualties henceforth must be expected, now that the American army has come to grips with large forces of crack German troops in Italy.

The president will deliver a general report on the progress of the war in both global theaters. The tenor of the report, however, will be that the American people must now deliver their utmost strength into the job, both on the home and battle fronts.

The message to congress is expected to replace at this time the fireside radio address to the nation that had been planned earlier.

This does not mean that the chief executive will not make another radio address before the end of the year, but the fact that he has seen fit to incorporate his report on the status of the war into a direct message to congress underscores the seriousness of his subject matter.

The president's report will be aimed at countering the wave of optimism which swept the country with the announcement that Italy had capitulated—an optimism that has been reflected in a partial letdown of armament production.

Mr. Roosevelt will warn the country against over-optimism when Allied forces gain a victory in the European theater or against Japan, and against undue pessimism when they meet with temporary reverses.

Roosevelt Gets His 'Right Arm' Aid Back Again

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Roosevelt once more has a "right arm" in the person of Justice Samuel I. Rosenman of the New York state supreme court.

Back in 1928, when he was governor of New York and Rosenman was his personal counsel, Mr. Roosevelt appointed "Sammy the Rose," as he is now known around the White House, to the state supreme court, and in doing so he said:

"This act of mine today is one of the most unselfish things in my life, because I am cutting off my right arm."

Now, after 15 years, the chunky, genial jurist is coming back into the chief executive's official family on a full-time basis, picking up exactly where he left off, as a personal counsel. He will leave the bench Oct. 1.

WAR LOAN DRIVE NEAR 2 MILLION

Richland county's Third War Loan drive today reached $1,743,567 and was expected to hit the two million mark before the end of the day.

Today's report represents 29 per cent of the $6,060,000 quota set for the county, Chairman H. G. Brunner said today. In the remaining 16 days of the intensive bond drive it will be the job of the county's 5,000 workers to sell $4,316,433 in bonds.

An additional 1,497 persons subscribed to the loan drive yesterday making a total of 2,642 subscribers to date. Of these, 1,469 persons bought series E bonds.

Largest sales reported for yesterday were of 2 per cent and seven-eighths per cent treasury notes. Two per cent notes netted $208,500 from five subscribers and seven-eighths per cent notes drew $310,000 from three subscribers.

Meanwhile in Washington today treasury officials expected the big money in the war loan drive to start rolling in today as the campaign takes on a note of grimness and determination with the news of the fifth army's struggle in Italy.

The treasury announced that at the close of business yesterday, $2,957,000,000 of the 15 billion dollar goal had been received, but emphasized that this was not the whole story since some time elapses before money is received and recorded by federal reserve banks.

EXHIBITS READY

County's One-Day Free Fair Opens Tomorrow.

Boys in Richland county's rural areas were grooming their livestock and poultry today and the farm and village girls who have been busy all summer with 4-H work were getting their dress and household projects ready for the junior fair which will open at 9 a. m. tomorrow at the county fairground.

The fair, shortened to one day because of the wartime transportation difficulties, will climax the season's efforts of 4-H club members, vocational agriculture students, and Future Farmer groups in the county.

The fair will be free to the public, with virtually all of the displays to be provided by young people in club work and rural schools. County schools will not be dismissed, but youthful exhibitors will be excused to take their projects to the fairground and watch over them during the show.

HELD AS SPY

Portuguese Seized by FBI as Helper of Nazis.

WASHINGTON — (INS) — J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the FBI announced today that John Da Silva Purvis, 43, a Portuguese, had been arrested at Newark, N. J., on a charge of being a German spy.

The specific charge against Purvis was violation of the wartime espionage act, but Hoover said he had been acting as a spy for Germany since early in 1942.

BURNING: Italians Show Hate Of Germans, Plead for Weapons

(Editor's Note. Aldo Forte manager of the Bern bureau of the United Press, has just crossed back into Switzerland after a trip into German-held Italy. Disguised as a mountain climber, he slipped through the wire barrier between Switzerland and Italy and spent 13 hours in the heart of the section where Hitler is planning to make his strongest stand against the Allied invasion of Europe. His dispatch, relayed to U. S. via Stockholm, follows.)

By ALDO FORTE

CHIASSO, SWISS-ITALIAN FRONTIER, via Stockholm — Italians in northern Italy have a burning hatred for the Germans who are occupying their soil, and men, women and children in some parts of the area I have just visited are digging trenches and preparing to resist Adolf Hitler's troops.

They are woefully short of weapons, and some men with whom I talked during my 13-hour tour asked why the Allies did not parachute arms and ammunition to them.

Pouring out questions on how soon the Allies could be expected in northern Italy, the people told me that the whole upper part of the country was willing and eager to fight to the last man against the Nazis, but lacked the arms to do it.

These descendants of men who fought the Germans down through the generations left no doubt of their bitter antipathy for the Nazis. They told tales of German plundering and killing, and of Germans stripping men and women of jewelry and their money in the streets.

RETREAT: Japs at Lae Fall Back, Face Crushing Defeat

(By Associated Press)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC—Japanese faced with annihilation at Lae, New Guinea—a fate which has overtaken most of the routed Salamaua garrison—fell back today before Allied pincer forces on two sides of the big air base.

Allied forces landed from the sea above Lae on Sept. 4 now stand only a mile from the southern end of the Malahang airdrome, the bigger of two at Lae. This force reached that point by seizing the village of New Yanga, half way between the airdrome and the Busu river.

Americans and Australians who landed from transport planes in the Markham valley Sept. 5 have swept through two prepared positions west of Lae and are expected momentarily to engage in bitter fighting with Japanese at Heath's plantation, eight miles from the town.

Eighteen miles below Lae, where the Allies have captured the airdrome and harbor town of Salamaua, General MacArthur's headquarters said "the enemy is completely routed and his forces destroyed."

Only a few scattered groups succeeded in fleeing into nearby jungles.

The opposing airforces exchanged blows but the most damaging one was delivered by the Allies against Wewak, New Guinea. On airdromes in that area, 3350 miles

IN THE CAPITAL-- By Raymond Clapper

WASHINGTON — An international organization supported by force is what Secretary Hull says we must have.

But he did not indicate the method by which force would be provided.

Behind the secretary's broad phrases is the administration idea of continuing and enlarging the membership of the combined chiefs of staff.

Clapper

Some have jumped to the conclusion that Secretary Hull has been hinting at an international police force. But that term does not quite fit what the Allied leaders have in mind.

They have discussed the idea of using force in terms of working through the combined chiefs of staff. That method has very broad implications indeed, but it does not need to sacrifice the national identity of military forces.

Of one thing we may be sure. The national defense establishments will remain national defense establishments. You will never find Winston Churchill taking down the Union Jack and placing the British navy under an international flag. The British navy may do the bidding of the combined chiefs of staff—but it will carry out the mission under its own flag. You will never find Uncle Joe Stalin changing his valiant Red Guard regiments into uniforms of an international infantry. American army air forces will not take off their wings to put on the rainbow colors of an international police force. No such wrenching of existing national military establishments is contemplated.

Only the Americans and the British have joined in the combined chiefs of staff. Both Roosevelt and Churchill have indicated they favor continuing the arrangement after the war. Public reaction has been favorable.

Some in Allied councils have favored a formal international agreement by which the combined chiefs of staff would be continued for a definite period—say of five or ten years with provisions so that any party might give notice of cancellation, or even that the agreement might renew itself automatically in the absence of notice to withdraw.

Evidently the thought is not to try to by-pass the senate. Technically perhaps an agreement could be signed by Roosevelt and Churchill that would not require the formal treaty ratification. But in such a fundamental change of American foreign relations as that, the senate undoubtedly would feel that it ought to have opportunity to extend its constitutional advice and consent. In the present temper of the country, with Republicans like Dewey supporting the idea of an Anglo-American alliance, the senate probably would act favorably.

Unquestionably those high in Allied councils would consider that Russia must be brought into the postwar combined chiefs of staff. Russia has not been a member because there has been no common fighting front with American and British forces. But after the war, both diplomatic and military considerations would make it desirable that Russia should be on the combined chiefs of staff. China's presence also would be desirable.

Objection would be raised by some against including any nations except those providing the bulk of the military forces. The staff organiaztion would be concerned with making military decisions. Therefore its membership must be compact and confined to those who will provide the main forces. Otherwise the organiaztion would degenerate into a debating society.

CALLS CONTROL OF ALCOHOL USE STATE PROBLEM

By EDWARD G. ENDERLE
(By International News Service)

COLUMBUS — The current problem of states who are controlling the sale of liquor through monopoly, is that of controlling the use of alcohol so that it does not interfere with rights and lives of others, R. Glen Dunn, chairman of the Michigan liquor control commission, said today.

Speaking before the National Alcoholic Beverage Control association, Dunn told delegates that liquor executives of monopoly states are pioneers in a very real sense - in social responsibilities.

"There are six groups who now are the source of most of the legitimate complaints against us," Dunn said. "These are drunk drivers, alcoholics, intemperate drinkers, poor licensees, juvenile delinquents and ineffective local authorities. If we succeed in conutrolling them, we have gone a long way down the road to making a real success of monopoly control."

Delegates to the three day meet yesterday heard Frank R. Schwengel, a director of the Distilled Spirits Institute, warn that organied dry forces are seeking a war-time short cut to national prohibition.

"Though a nation-wide poll indicates an upswing in public opposition to prohibition, we should not be unmindful that the national Temperance and Prohibition council, cunningly intends to circumvent the need for a popular vote and constitutional amendment by the simple device of forcing restrictions upon the manufacture, sale and consumption in war time," Schwengel asserted. "This would be tantamount to national prohibition."

Harold Hartley, executive editor of the Toledo Times, discussed public relations in the liquor industry.

"There is little chance of prohibition returning while the young men of the nation are overseas," Hartley said. "There also are no signs of bootlegging returning on a big scale. By bootlegging I mean the illicit corn sugar still."

WHEAT DEALERS IN MANSFIELD ASK CROP HIKE

Charge Triple A Discriminated Against Ohio In Grain Quota For 1944.

Contending that the Thiple-A discriminated against Ohio in setting up the 1944 wheat acreage allotments, a number of grain dealers in the Mansfield area had joined other Ohio millers today in requesting that the allotment be increased to boost next year's wheat production.

Ohio's 1944 wheat goal was set at 1,650,000 acres by the AAA, an increase of only 6,000 acres over this year. Other mid-western states were increased from five to 82 per cent.

Many Richland county farmers have already indicated they would ignore the AAA goal and step up their acreage as much as 20 per cent this fall. The county's 1944 goal is 28,300 acres, which is only 600 acres more than the county farmers harvested this summer.

The Triple-A program has no direct control over wheat acreage this year, but millers fear farmers may be influenced to hold down their seedings this fall and create a shortage of soft winter wheat for flour.

Because of the poor crop this year, farmers in parts of Ohio are having difficulty finding enough grain for seed and millers have been hard hit by the shortage, said J. O. Hanley of the Hanley Milling company in Mansfield.

"There may be a surplus of wheat at the western markets, but it's not the same quality of grain we use for flour here in Ohio," Hanley said. "Wheat is the farmer's best cash crop and one that causes him less trouble than the others he grows," he added.

A leader in the movement for more wheat acreage in 1944, H. J. BeBout, Loudonville miller, pointed out that Ohio's wheat production this year was only about half of normal, creating a serious shortage for the flour millers.

FAIR ENOUGH-- By Westbrook Pegler

NEW YORK—Marshall Field III will receive late this month the remainder of the estate left by his grandfather. A dispatch to the New York Times states that the windfall will amount to something between $70,000,000 and $75,000,000 and that he has already received, since his grandfather's death in 1906, about $39,000,000.

The first Marshall Field was born in Massachusetts in 1835 and went to Chicago at the age of 21 to work for a wholesale dry goods company. He became a partner four years later and, during the Civil war, which broke out when he was 26 years old, his company had very profitable dealings with the union government in furnishing clothing and other necessities for the soldiers. By the end of the war he was already rich.

Pegler

As Chicago and the midwest grew, Marshall Field's wealth pyramided. He bought Chicago real estate cheap and profited by the increase in value and he invested in railroads and other public utilities. He paid low wages and was an arrogant and indefatigable tax-dodger and one of the privileged rulers of a community and a section of the growing nation whose pioneer inhabitants in all directions paid profits to him through his network of property interests.

His grandson, now interested in newspaper publishing in New York and Chicago, was sent to England for his education, and his enterprises until a few years ago consisted of marriage, three times, horse racing and a Long Island estate of more than 1000 acres.

If it can be assumed that Marshall Field III is guided by the successful wisdom of the old gentleman who left him the money, he has kept intact the inheritance which he has previously received, and has managed his affairs as the old man did so as to pay a minimum of taxes. He would thus have at this time, about $160,000,000 which, at the conservative yield of three per cent would pay him an income of $4,800,000 a year. Unless he were able to show a loss, this income would be largely siphoned off into the United States treasury to pay for the war which Mr. Field saw coming and which he fiercely berated others for not anticipating. However with two daily publications, one of them, in Chicago an outwardly conventional newspaper, the other, in New York, a journalistic query which makes no pretense of factuality, he is in a position to show operating losses which, if reckoned in his tax returns, would reduce his taxes considerably.

His income, at this rate of estimate, would be more than $90,000 a week, enough to support both of his publications at a loss and still leave an attractive sum for the government.

Field's editorial policy is passionately New Deal in both of his ventures and he has received the support of the department of justice and the Roosevelt administration in his efforts to compel the Associated Press to give him a franchise in Chicago. After his application was blocked the department of justice attacked the AP as a monopoly notwithstanding the fact that the United Press and International News, both excellent, are available.

Field's New York paper PM, began with a rather subtle underground ballyhoo. It was mentioned day after day before publication in the gents' room journalism which several years ago became an adjunct of the communist press. Then shortly after it came out it was discovered that its editorial department was a nest, or a cell, of fellow-travelers and similar radicals. It is European, not American in pattern and notwithstanding its leftish character it is distinctly reminiscent of the Nazi press of Hitler's early phase.

"There is," wrote a young American journalist now in the army who served Field as a sub-editor of PM for some time, "a peculiar parallel between PM and the Nazi papers during Hitler's rise. There is the same subsidy by a rich man, Field in one case, Fritz Thyssen in another. The same pseudo-sympathy for the poor. The same disemboweling of context. The same consistent discrediting of democratic institutions, such as congress, the same idolization of a single leader, or fuehrer. The same smearing of business and emotional appeals to the masses. By PM's own stannard, PM is an outstanding virulent example of native American fascism."

"Of course," this former subeditor wrote, "PM has never tried for accuracy. RMI has said again and again that he does not want people to understand, only to 'feel'."

RMI refers to Ralph Ingersoll, Field's first editor, who was drafted over Field's protest after clamoring savagely for war, then quickly promoted to captain and assigned to sedentary duties in London.

In five Richland county townships, the weeds will be only partially mowed this year because contractors are unable to get workers, County Engineer Howard Sword said today.

Only 75 per cent of the weed mowing will be done in Plymouth, Bloominggrove, Cass, Jackson, and Worthington townships, he said. Partial mowing will also be done in Madison and Mifflin townships since contractors in those townships would only take partial contracts.

Weed mowing in Butler township has been done by the county since no one contracted for that job, Sword said. He noted that work was well along and promised to be finished in Weller, Troy, Jefferson, Monroe, Washington and Perry Townships.

MARION SCENE OF RACE FILM

Movie Stars, Racing Drivers In Neighboring City For 'Phantom Filly.'

(By United Press)

MARION Screen players from Hollywood descended on this harness racing center today for the filming of a special race program which will be used in the 20th century-Fox production of "The Phantom Filly."

The fame of the harness racing drivers who will appear in the races matches or surpasses that of the screen stars who will appear in the filming of the story, based on George Agnew Chamberlain's tale of a nondescript colt which becomes champion in the harness racing world.

Ben White, winner of the 1943 Hambletonian and first man to win the trotting classic four times, Vic Fleming of Goshen, N. Y., Harry Fitzpatrick of Springfield, Ill., By Shively of Miami, Okla., and Fred Eagen of Aiken, S. C., are a few of the famous harness drivers who will appear in the special race program which begins tomorrow and runs through Saturday.

Stars who have been cast in the production are Walter Brennan, Ward Bond and Lon McCallister. On conclusion of the meeting Saturday, the Hollywood troupe will remain for further filming and then move on to Walnut Hill farm at Donerail, Ky.

Among the horses at the grounds are King's Counsel and Gay Song, full brother to Hambletonian winner Volo Song

If you have a few extra coat hangers collecting dust in the closet or attic, the army flying students at the Mansfield airport could use them. The Mansfield USO club will collect the hangers during the afternoon and evenings, asking for 300 of them right away to turn over to the student fliers who have recently arrived at the airport. If you want to contribute five or six hangers, or even less take them to the USO club or telephone the club at 3740-6.

Soldiers, sailors and marines who are worrying about the girls they left behind them "sitting under the apple tree with someone else" should follow the method of one Mansfield soldier. The other day Mary Santoro who works in the recorder's office at the courthouse received a pin from her husband, Joe, hearing just the sentiments of nearly every man in service. The pin is a small wooden soldier and on his chest is the inscription, "My man is in the army. Hands off."

A novel bond-selling plan was inaugurated today by the Floral Hedge club in the Hedges school district which conducted an old-time community auction at Hedges and Arch street. Residents of the community were asked to bring articles to be sold and to turn the proceeds over to a war bond fund. A bond agent was on the job to sell the bonds as soon as there was enough money to pay for them. Community representatives said other Mansfield clubs have become interested in the plan and will sponsor similar sales in the city.

STRIKE CLOSES TOLEOD SCHOOLS

40.000 Pupils, 1,200 Teachers Idle as Workers Demand Higher Pay.

TOLEDO—(AP)—Every building in Toledo public school system was closed today by most far-flung strike in the city's history.

A walkout of building service and maintenance workers on the third day of the new term shut the doors of 65 buildings, cut off more than 40,000 children from access to their classes and is keeping about 1,200 teachers idle. No disturbances were reported.

Periodically threatened whenever deadlocks on major wage questions developed between the Toledo board of education and three organized groups of non-educational employes, the strike began last night when the unions confirmed an earlier decision to walk out. The AFL unions concerned are the operating engineers, building and service employes and firemen and oilers.

The strike resulted from the asserted inability of the board of education to meet the unions' demands for a "cost-of-living" increase of $30 a month Since June the board had declared it was without funds to grandt increases.

Strikers said selective service boards and ration boards would be permitted to use the school buildings as usual, but the federal day nursery project which takes care of the children of working war mothers in 10 schools, was closed Sunday.

A football game Friday night will not be affected by the strike, it was announced.

INDICTS HAGERT

Grand Jury Cites Confessed Slayer of Cleveland Twins.

CLEVELAND (AP) Henry W. Hagert, 18-year-old self-confessed slayer of James and Charles Collins, 13-year-old twins, was indicted for first degree murder by the Cuyahoga county grand jury today and specifically charged with the slaying of James.

Hagert will be arraigned tomorrow. It was expected that Judge Charles J. McNamee will accept at that time a psychiatrists' report that Hagert is insane or order a new sanity examination.

FINAL RUSH

Income Tax Statements Must Be Filed By Midnight.

Mansfielders continued to flock to the internal revenue office today as they hurried to file estimates of their 1943 incomes before the deadline at midnight tonight.

Deputy Collector Al Wentz said the local office would remain open until 8 p. m. to accommodate last minute filers. Mailed returns received after the deadline but postmarked before midnight tonight will be accepted without penalty.

Meanwhile a state-wide report showed today that a little more than a third of the 615,000 anticipated returns were on file.

ON BROADWAY-- By Dorothy Kilgallen

Speaking For Myself.

SOMEONE, someday, should compile a glossary of ungrammatical verbiage as bandied about by almost all comedians. Included might be "yak" (meaning a howl: loud laughter), "stravis" (being the most frequently used doubletalk word; and "take it" (meaning strike up the band).

One of the few comedians who seems always to speak in completely lucid and grammatical English, no matter how funny he is trying to be, is Walter O'Keefe. I have often wondered if the fact that Walter went to college (so few comedians did) had anything to do with it. He is a graduate of Notre Dame, which, perhaps, is why you never hear him ask "Who was the lady I seen you wit' last night?"

I discover that since its opening, "Oklahoma!" has developed from an engaging musical show into a cult with a following as devout as any of India's more abstruse religions. A sizable number of people around town have seen the show eight, ten and even fifteen times, which is quite a trick, considering the difficulty of obtaining tickets, and as a result the employes at the St. James are accustomed now to seeing familiar faces every night in the audience as well as on the stage.

I do hope, however, that "Oklahoma!" will somehow escape the fate of Gilbert and Sullivan revivals, at which the entire audience often breaks into song along with the performers, and a line accented differently or a musical phrase slightly twisted evokes a mass wailing to turn your blood cold.

I don't know what Frank Sinatra's got that Bing Crosby's hasn't got, but don't let anyone tell you he hasn't got anything, because, aside from his voice, which you may or may not like, he owns a technique that is peculiarly arresting.

For one thing, he is the most painstakingly careless dresser I've ever seen on a stage. His hair, never combed-looking, is always drooping precisely three-eighths of an inch down on his forehead, and his complete humility in front of an audience is something any other performer, from Borrah Minnevitch's Rascals to Leopold Stokowski, could copy.

Someone along Broadway with the proper sporting spirit ought to make a three-way book on the three crooners who have just signed juicy film contracts. Which one, for instance, will be the biggest click in the cinema, as, evidenced by the gross receipts on his first two pictures? Sinatra is the hottest right now, but supposing Perry Como or Dick Haymes gets into a Casablanca, with an "As Time Goes By" to warble, for his first film? That lucky fellow could assume the lead easily.

I think the bookmakers around 50th and Broadway ought to give this matter some thought. My own prices (mind you, gross receipts on the first two pictures are all that count) would be:

Sinatra, as the favorite, at 3 to 5. Perry Como second choice, about 9 to 5. Dick Haymes a very close third pick, at 11 to 5.

But please, please—don't start betting me!

There is no more libelous evidence of a great beauty's age than old photographs taken in the hats that were all the rage in some happily bygone season. Four-star belles like Connie Bennett, Gloria Swanson, Grace Moore, Claudette Colbert and others should raid the newspaper morgues of the nation and seize all available glossy prints and one-column cuts of themselves in those dated, dreadful chapeaux.

Because it's little things like that that make people think they must be awfully ancient if they looked that old that long ago.

DIARY IN CODE ADDS MYSTERY

Book Studied as Clue In Slaying Of 'Masked Marvel.'

HOLLYWOOD—(INS) A leather bound diary, written in secret code, today entered the mysterious stabbing of David G. Bacon, 29, "Masked Marvel" of the movies and scion of a wealthy and influential Boston family.

Bacon died Sunday night in a bean field after being stabbed with one thrust of a stiletto-like blade.

The young actor's widow and bride of less than a year, Greta Keller, former European singing star, told detectives that Bacon kept the diary religiously, and would never allow her to read it. Mrs. Bacon is an expectant mother.

I fear my friend Watty Slabaugh is becoming modest.

With a number of other Mansfield racquet swingers, Watson went to Galion's Heise park Sunday to compete in the annual North Central Ohio tennis tournament, postponed from a rainy Labor day weekend.

And Watson brought back the singles championship and a share of the doubles title. And never a word did Watty tell me about it.

Repeating his Woodlawn Tennis club finals victory over Mansfield city champion Lowell Bourns, Slabaugh again took Bourns in the finals of the N. C. O. tourney.

And Slabaugh and Bourns, who hold both the Mansfield and the Woodlawn doubles titles, added the N. C. O. crown to their list, winning from Mansfielders Bob Enos and Frank Gadfield in the finals.

Packing a two-day tournament into one day, the racqueteers found themselves arm and leg weary by the time the finals were reached, and cut them to one set. The singles score was 6-2, and doubles 6-1.

It was pretty much of a Mansfield tournament. With only four Mansfielders entered, all four got into the quarter finals, where Slabaugh defeated Enos 7-5, 6-3.

That left three in the semi-finals where Bourns won from Gadfield 6-2, 6-3, and Slabaugh defeated Hoff of Medina 6-3, 6-3.

Well, gee whiz I just happened to think. Maybe it wasn't entirely modesty that kept Watty from reporting his Galion conquests. Maybe Watty just isn't telling me anything any more, since I reported his recent business trip to New York during the Forest Hills tournament.

I understand the boys in the office at Westinghouse sent him a telegram while he was in New York, instructing him to:

N.C.O. Schools Lift Grid Lid

Mt. Vernon Fills Open Date Friday Night.

SHELBY — All of the North Central Ohio league schools will open the 1943 football season over the coming week-end against non-conference teams

Mt. Vernon, who had an open date scheduled for this week-end, made arrangements with Columbus South for a game on the Yellow Jackets' field for Friday night.

A heavier and more experienced Shelby Whippet eleven will play host to Norwalk high school here under the floodlights on the same night. Shelby suffered a 27 to 0 defeat at Norwalk last year. It was the first time that the Maple City eleven had beaten the Whippets since 1937. The Whippet line-up will include six veterans that started the Norwalk game last season, Jack Robb, Bill Dodge, Joe Garns, Arenia Steele, Bob Roberts and Bob Miller. In addition, Coach Larry Swackhamer will have six other veterans, Herb Poland Harley Jones Don Monn Ira Clabaugh Salvatore DeVito and Bob Elliott to fill the vacant positions

Out of the line-up that started the Norwalk game last season for the Whippets, only five are missing through graduation or to the armed forces. Harry Crawford, Francis Hiatt, Ray Simon, Wayne Briggs and Donald Broderick.

Marion entertains Mansfield on Saturday night, Ashland goes to Willard on Friday night while the same night Galion entertains Tiffin Calvert and Bucyrus goes to Tiffin Columbian.

PITT GRID SQUAD LOSES 4 IN 'RAID'

PITTSBURGH — (AP) Clark Shaughnessy, Pitt football coach whose Panthers meet Ohio State university here, Nov. 6, minimized the loss of four and possibly six freshmen players to "raiding" southern schools today.

"They came right on our campus and offered them terms they couldn't afford to turn down," Shaughnessy said of the southern schools.

Scramble Grows Hot For Second

Both Circuits Boast Spirited Competition.

By JUDSON BAILEY
(By Associated Press)

IN THE ABSENCE of anything resembling a pennant race, the major leagues are offering the next best thing—a spirited scramble for second place in both circuits.

The glamor and gold is not the same, but the struggle between the Washington Senators and Cleveland Indians in the American league and between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds in the National is just as torrid as if the stake were first place.

The Senators, who finished seventh a year ago, are earnestly seeking the second slot this season, and in the last five days have put on a spurt of five consecutive victories. This drive, coupled with a double setback for Cleveland last night, was enough to place Washington again in the American league's runner-up spot.

Playing the Boston Red Sox in a night game, the Senators had their hands full, but a single by Gerry Priddy in the seventh inning knocked in the deciding run for a 3-2 victory.

At St. Louis the Indians, who previously had won six out of seven games, were tumbled twice by the Browns 3-0 and 7-1 and dropped back to third place by a game and a half.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who moved into second place last week-end on the crest of a winning streak that numbered 14 victories in 15 games, were blanked 3-0 by the Boston Braves and saw their margin over the idle Cincinnati Reds shaved to half a game.

In the only other senior circuit encounter, the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies, who already were scheduled for a game at 11 o'clock (EWT) this morning, struggled to a 4-4 ten-inning tie in a night game called by baseball curfew rules at 1 o'clock this morning after twice being interrupted by weather. As the result today's program at Philadelphia was made into a morning doubleheader.

The New York Yankees downed the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 with an inept exhibition in which Bill Zuber granted 11 bases on balls in 4 1-3 innings and Detroit divided a doubleheader with Chicago. The White Sox took the first 7-1 and the Tigers the second 7-5.

Shirley Fry Match Booked

Girl Tennis Champion Plays Here Sunday.

Shirley Fry, 16-year-old Akron tennis star, will appear in an exhibition match at Woodlawn Tennis club Sunday at 2 p. m.

Final arrangements have been completed for the long awaited appearance here of the Akron high school junior, who a year ago was ranked 13th among women tennis players of the nation.

This year she went to the semi-finals of the national junior championships at Chicago, and paired with national singles champion Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., to win the junior doubles title.

* * *

She will meet either Lowell Bourns or Watty Slabaugh in a two out of three set exhibition and then a Woodlawn doubles team will meet a team from Akron University club.

Sinkwich Signs Detroit Contract

DETROIT — (AP) — Smiling Frankie Sinkwich, who will run, pass and kick for the Detroit Lions this football season, made a big impression here before he ever laid hands on a football for the pro team.

The whiz of the southern college gridirons, where he became an All-American, had owner Fred L. Mandel, jr., of the Lions down on his one-yard line, figuratively speaking, before he got Frankie's name on a contract.

Finally Mandel emerged to announce the signing and pay tribute, incidentally, to the former Georgia star's class as a bargainer.

"If he can play football as well as he can argue about dough," Mandel said, "we ought to win the championship easily."

Frankie, whom the U. S. Marines discharged because of physical disabilities, hustled to the Lions' training camp at a suburban golf course right after signing.

"I can hardly wait to put on a uniform," he said.

Cleveland Team Still Undefeated

YOUNGSTOWN — (AP) — Only six teams remain in competition in the 30th annual amateur baseball federation tournament and two of them will be dropped today in a schedule paring four once-beaten teams.

The two teams as yet undefeated in the two-defeats-and-out schedule are the Cleveland Bartunek Clothiers and Detroit's defending champion Auto club nine, paired in a floodlight game tonight.

Fort Wayne, Ind.'s city light, who booted the Birmingham, Ala., Acipcos out of play yesterday, meet the strong Atlanta ordnance depot in one of the afternoon encounters. The other is between the Pontiac, Mich., Yellow Coaches and Waterbury, Conn.

The Bartuneks handed Pontiac its first defeat last night 9-1, on a two-hit pitching performance by Paul O'Dea, former Springfield, O., Mid-Atlantic leaguer. Detroit was idle with a bye yesterday. Fort Wayne shut out the Birmingham team, 2-0.

* * *

Waterbury eliminated the Pittsburgh Oakmonts by handing the Pennsylvanians their second defeat, 3-1, and Atlanta put the Baltimore Spring Grove nine out of the tournament with an 18-6 victory.

Brewers Cling to Three-Game Lead

(By Associated Press)

Milwaukee moved another step toward the American Association pennant last night, defeating Minneapolis 7-3 while second place Indianapolis was shutting out Toledo 2-0. The season ends Sunday.

* * *

Indianapolis remained three games behind the leaders after squeezing out the fourth-place Mud Hens behind the nine-hit pitching of Jim Trexler.

Although Preacher Roe held Louisville to five hits and struck out seven, Columbus dropped a 2-1 decision and fell to five games out of first place.

Kansas City moved into seventh place by a scant one point margin in splitting a double header with St. Paul, the Saints dropping to the cellar. The Blues took the first game 1-0 while losing the nightcap 1-5.

Grid Season In Full Swing

Grid season's on as collegiate elevens open their campaigns weeks early. At New Haven, Conn., Yale's Bulldogs edged Muhlenberg, 13 to 6, in a hard-fought game. This action is from that game. Pickett, Yale fullback, uses the straight-arm here.

Sport Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK — (AP) — With the major league pro football season opening Sunday—and it'll outclass the college brand this year just the way big league baseball does—this corner offers a scouting report from one of the biggest and best scouts in the business. . . . To get it over quick, he picks the Bears and the Redskins.

The way our informant sees it, you can laugh off those three pre-season games the Redskins lost . . . they couldn't do much scrimmaging with a 28-man squad, he explains, and they had to get ready in a hurry for the all-stars with 80 men. . . . But Sammy Baugh seems to have recovered from whatever ailment was bothering him at the start and is hitting his pass receivers in his best form. . . . The older players are just beginning to get into shape and when they do, they'll be tough. The Skins may lose Jack Jenkins, who looks good, but they have a whale of a defense player in Wilbur Moore. . . . Their only competition in the east should come from the Giants, who'll be a lot better than last year.

The Bears and Packers will have another race in the western division but the Bears, as usual, seem to have the ball club. . . . They have those two big guards, Fortmann and Musso and a good-looking boy named Merkel from Kansas—also Sid Luckman and Bill Geyer, who is stronger and better than last year. . . . Curly Lambeau has been boasting about the Packers' line but the inside dope is that the line isn't so good as he claims. Tony Canadeo's passing to Don Huston is Okay and so is a new back named Fritsch. . . . Detroit's Lions have a good passing club but so far their running attack hasn't looked so hot. . . . Frankie Sinkwich may improve that department. . . . You can lump the other clubs under the "I dunno" heading.

When Bill Hetzel, rookie infielder, walked out on the Boston Braves the other day, he gave this brand new explanation for his act: "Big league baseball is too high toned for me; always having to wear coats and ties, imagine."

Samuel B. Cohen, Meridan (Conn.) Journal: "The Senators have a Candini, the Braves a Cardoni and the Giants could have used a Houdini to get them out of the bonds of the National league cellar."

* * *

From somewhere in the South Pacific, Marine Lieut. David Simmons, who played on Buck Shaw's Santa Clara grid teams, send this word: "Many times I cursed football for giving me my bum knees and legs that hampered certain phases of my Officers' Training, but after half a year out here in the field, I have decided the pointers learned from football about handling men outweigh its disadvantages."

Browns Beat Tribe's Aces

Bagby and Smith Lose In Twi-Night Tilts.

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Battered by the St. Louis Browns in both ends of a twi-night double-header, Cleveland's Indians are back in third place today, a game and a half below the Washington Nationals.

The twin defeat was registered last night. The Tribe tallied only one run in 18 innings of play, losing 3-1 and 7-1. The defeats were charged to Cleveland's best—Jim Bagby and Al Smith.

After today's western road trip finale with the Browns, the Indians return home Friday night to open a four-game stand.

Steve Sundra pitched a four-hit shutout in yesterday's twilight affray, aided by Vernon Stephens' 19th and 20th home runs. Bagby gave up five hits in six innings before being relieved by Mike Naymick, who yielded one safety in two frames.

Stephens cracked loose his first circuit smash in the second and duplicated it in the sixth.

In the afterpiece, Nelson Potter scattered nine hits, and the Brownies got to Smith and Vernon for the same number.

The Indians tallied first when Ray Mack singled in the third inning, stole second and raced home on a single by Russ Peters.

* * *

St. Louis scored twice in the list of the same inning, however, on successive singles by Don Gutteridge, Mike Kreevich and George McQuinn, and an error by catcher Buddy Rosar. The Browns made three runs in the fifth on doubles by Mark Christman and Stephens, after Smith issued bases on balls to McQuinn and Chet Laabs. The final two markers came in the sixth, in an attack that started when Roy Cullenbine misjudged Frankie Hayes' outfield fly that was good for two bases.

PRACTICE AERIALS

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio State's Buckeyes today continued rigid practice on both pass offense and defense, indicating that Coach Paul Brown is again counting heavily on good overhead attack to keep the Scarlet and Gray in the winning column this fall.

Calls Tyger-President Game Tops In State

Writer Says Mansfield-Marion Game Is High School Standout.

By SAM FOGG, INS Sports Writer.

OHIO'S high school football elevens, long recognized as among the best in the nation, will begin their ten-week 1943 season with a full slate of action and interest this week-end.

For the first season in more than a decade, the mythical state title is not being conceded without contest to either Massillon or Canton McKinley, the Stark county powerhouse combines. The Tigers, champions for seven consecutive seasons, lost not only the title but the psychological edge held over opponents when they fell before McKinley last fall. The McKinley Bulldogs are themselves vulnerable to upset and heavily hit by losses to the armed forces.

The small Canton schools, Lehman, Timken and Lincoln, as well as Steubenville, Martins Ferry, Mansfield, Tiltonsville, Toledo Libbey and Dayton Oakwood have justifiable title ambitions and are ready to contest any claims made by any eleven before the season is played.

Still other schools such as Cadiz, Athens, Zanesville, Marion, Galion, Dover and Akron Kenmore are showing distinct signs of speed, power and experience which make for upsets.

The top notch contest of the week will match Marion and Mansfield. Both elevens are ably coached and are strong schoolboy outfits and their meeting Saturday at Marion should leave one of the two rivals dominating the northwest sector.

Both Massillon and McKinley are scheduled for troublesome opposition in volving that intangible element known as fierce rivalry. The Tigers open athletic relations with Canton Lincoln at Massillon while McKinley meets their city rival, Canton Timken.

Both the Lions and the Trojans are capable of forcing the two major elevens to their utmost and should provide ample test of the potential power of both. The Lions will be playing their first Canton-Massillon rivalry while Massillon in turn, heavy and experienced, rankles from the McKinley defeat last fall and is eager to begin another victory streak.

McKinley with one of the fastest backfields in the history of the school, has uneasy recollections of Timken teams spilling highly favored Bulldog cage squads. The Trojans each year aim for their larger city rival and in the short time since becoming a full grown high school, they've had a fair degree of success.

Cadiz and St. Clairsville, both with high hopes, veteran material and weight, will clash to determine their prospects in another headline clash. Zanesville's Blue Flashes, who have become exceedingly active under the new tutelage of Joe Austin, get their first test from an invading Dayton Fairview squad.

The Tiltonsville-Dillonville tilt will have the 24-game winning streak of the Tiltonsville eleven at stake. Cleveland Lincoln will risk a 22-game string against Collinwood whom they defeated in the charity championship contest last November. Defiance, unbeaten in 1942, opens against Paulding and Toledo Libbey, likewise undefeated last year, faces Toledo Central. Youngstown Woodrow Wilson, unbeaten last year but hurt by military losses this season, meets Struthers. Martins Ferry opens against Yorkville, an ambitious Class B competitor.

Ticket Sale Goes Rapidly

East Side of Stadium Open For Season Ducats.

With the opening game of the Mansfield Tyger home football schedule still two weeks away, the sale of season tickets to Tyger games is within 200 of last season's high mark, a mark reached in mid-season a year ago, before the Massillon game.

"All tickets in section F are gone," Ticket Chairman George Sherman reported today. "Those in G are nearly gone, but there are still plenty of good seats in H."

Section F is on the 550 yard line in front of the press box on the west side of the field. Section G is just north of F on the 40 yard line, and H is on the 30.

However, Mansfield fans still have plenty of chance for 50-yard-line seats, Sherman pointed out.

"We won't have the visiting crowds this season on the east side of the field because of war transportation difficulties," Sherman said, "so we'll gladly fix up groups of season tickets on the east side."

Tickets are on sale at the high school and Tawse's Pharmacy.

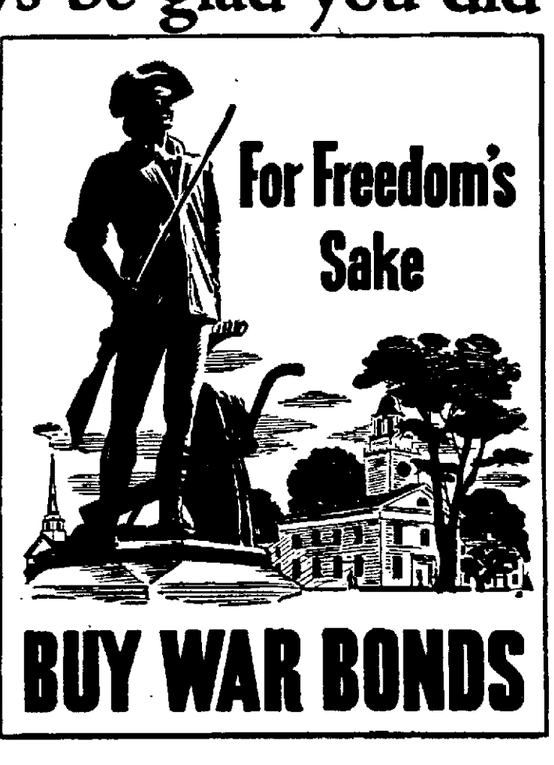
"You'll always be glad you did"



None of us will be completely happy until the day of Victory. The day our boys are back; our sons, brothers and husbands. We want our way of life to go on, and we're fighting to make sure it does. We want Jim or Bill (you know his name) to be sitting right there in his easy chair with his pipe or studying in his own room. We want to have friends in for dinner again . . . and a big roast beef for them. We want to be able to take a long drive in the country, buy a new car, have fun, be happy. We want to live again on that sunny side of things of which Coca-Cola, itself, is such a symbol. There are so many things we want back. Yes, so many. None of them will come unless we win. All, and more, will come when we win. The War Bonds you buy will hasten the day . . . the day of Victory.

IONORS MEN OF WASP, LOST ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

(By International News Service)

QUINCY, Mass.—Just one year go today, the Quincy-born aircraft carrier Wasp died in its nfancy, pierced by Japanese torpedoes—and with it exploded forever the pre-Pearl harbor myth f the "softness" of American outh.

Amid explosions, flames and ullets, the 1,800 crew members—lany of them youngsters of 18, 9 and 20—fought courageously o save the ship. They risked heir lives to help their shipmates, specially the wounded.

"There was never any panic," aid their senior medical officer, Commander B. W. Hogan (MC) . S. N., of the bureau of medicine and survery in Washington.

Commander Hogan's study of he crew's behavior in the face f death, published in the Americ an Journal of Psychiatry, loomed s an important tribute, on the nniversary of the Wasp's sinking.

"For a number of years," he eclared, "I have heard psychiarists, educators, clergy and others speak of the deterioration of he American youth—born in the runken, lawless prohibition era f the twenties, raised in the deression days of the thirties.

"I tell you that we here should ay tribute to these 18-19-20-ear-old men who are winning he war and remaining stable."

Commander Hogan painted a ramatic picture of scenes aboard he vessel when two torpedoes truck and exploded:

"Nearly everyone was knocked down and bounced around like a rubber ball. A column of water shot up the side of the ship. Men on the signal bridge stood a foot deep in water. A yellowish sheet of flame spread with lightning speed up the starboard side, searing and flaming everything in its path, the oil covered water and the bombers and fighters on the hangar deck.

"The gasoline, ammunition and ombs exploded. The flames enveloped the men and guns on the un gallery. A hailstorm of bul-ts and shrapnel rained out of he hangar deck and from the gun alleries. Destruction, death and re spread rapidly. The ready nmunition and powder bags ere ignited, burned and explod-, and created a constant din.

"It sounded as if all our guns ere shooting. Heavy clouds of ack smoke enveloped the forard part of the ship. Each blast ould send men, missiles and anks hurtling through the air."

The Wasps' officers and men e r e "magnicifent," declared ommander Hogan, and "they all esired to be assigned to carrier ity and get back into the fight."

Today, as credit is paid to the aliant crew of the Wasp, another Quincy-launched Wasp, more owerful and heavier armed than s predecessor, now serves on e battle line.

TWA Places Mansfield on New Coast to Coast Airline Plan

Marietta, Springfield, Steubenville, Hamilton and Middletown.

"Ohio, one of the business and manufacturing centers of the world, has always been one of the main focal points on TWA's main route," Frye said.

"The proposed service in Ohio would encompass all larger communities and at the same time provide through schedules and direct connections from many other population centers."

He added that connections provided by TWA with other air carriers would provide considerably improved facilities in a north and south direction, as well as in the east-west pattern of the TWA route system."

All the new routes would be operated with multi-engine airliners.

"This intensive service is part of a plan TWA is proposing for sound airline development," Frye explained. "This plan has as its basic principle the serving of the community of interest between present route cities and those cities immediately on or adjacent to our routes. By integrating the communications needs of all these communities, an air transport system of greatest public benefit and maximum traffic flow is created, with a minimum extension of essential route miles."

The program could be put into effect today "if aircraft were available," Frye said.

This statement, and the need of hard-surfaced runways to handle landing of commercial aircraft, indicates that the service would not be available to Mansfield, at least until the Civil Aeronautics Authority's proposed development program is completed.

FIND TRAIL OF OSR FUGITIVE

County Officers Learn He Stole Clothes, Cash In Course of Escape.

Police throughout Ohio today were hunting one of four trusties who escaped from the Ohio State Reformatory last week-end after Sheriff Frank Robinson reported the discovery of a number of clues pointing out the movements of the escapee during the past two days.

Darwin Thatcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thatcher, 451 Woodland avenue, reported to the sheriff he found a bundle of clothes belonging to a reformatory inmate in the woods east of Westbrook Country club. He was searching through the woods for golf balls when he came upon the clothes, he reported.

In the pocket of the trousers, Sheriff Robinson said was a slip of paper indicating the clothes belonged to Warren Lambert, 21, sentenced from Summit county for 15 years for burglary and larceny.

As the authorities reconstructed Lambert's movements, he first broke into the home of Norman Frampton on Hanna road between 4 and 4:30 p. m. yesterday where he stole a blue suit, tan oxfords, tan sport shirt and $1 in pennies from a penny bank.

From there he went to the woods near the County club, authorities believe, and discarded his clothes for the stolen ones. He was later seen at a garage in Roseland where he asked the way to Chicago and started off down Trimble road.

Company F Guards Go to Akron for Week-End Drills

Thirty members of Mansfield's Ohio State Guard Company F will attend an overnight camp to be held at Akron over the week-end for regional maneuvers of the Third infantry.

Capt. Glenn L. Bierly said guardsmen will be transported to Akron in state highway department trucks, one group leaving at 3:30 p. m. Saturday and another at 6 p. m. They will return Sunday afternoon.

Bierly also announced the names of guardsmen who have received merit ribbons. These are Cpl. Robert E. Young, and the following privates: Arthur C. Bell, Arthur B. Callihan, Charles A. Edmonstone, Donnell Gale (now in army), William L. Hedrick, Darrell R. Hudson, Don C. Yoakam and William D. Beer.

Beer and another member of the company, Pfc. James Bierly, son of the captain, are to leave for the army next week. Capt. Bierly said applicants for these two vacancies are now being received.

TOUR PLANTS

War Service Speakers See Manpower Needs.

Ten members of the civilian defense war services speakers' bureau visited Mansfield industrial plants today to gain first-hand knowledge of the manpoyer shortage so they can discuss it before city organizations.

Members of the speakers' group, headed by Mrs. Eugene Weinberger, are Mrs. Frank Rudd, Mrs. C. F. Sheriff, Mrs. J. L. Stevens, Mrs. Gilbert Dobson, Mrs. John W. Graham, Mrs. George Hout, Mrs. Della Cochran, Mrs. Hamilton Walter, and Miss Leona Hout.

The speakers will appear before clubs, sororities, and labor union and lodge auxiliaries to discuss the need for more women in war industries, the cadet nurses programs, and the salvage campaign.

Speakers may be obtained by calling Mrs. Weinberger or civilian defense headquarters in the city building.

DRIVER HURT

Injured Taxi Driver To Face Police Charges.

Injured late Tuesday in a traffic accident at East First and Foster street, Tom J. Blandi, 17-year-old taxi driver, today faced a charge of driving through a stop sign.

Although Blandi, driver for the Service Taxi company, was not believed injured seriously, he is being held for observation in General hospital. Police said they would file the traffic charge as soon as he is released.

Police said the taxi driven by Blandi crashed into the side of a car driven by Henry Carl Berg, 51, of 221 South Foster street, at 4:50 p. m. yesterday at the intersection, knocking Berg's car up over the sidewalk onto a lawn.

A truck driver who had stopped at the intersection told officers Blandi drove past him, the taxi crashing into the side of the other car.

NEW RECORD

160 Pints of Blood Donated on First Day.

Richland county blood donors set a new mark yesterday as they gave 160 pints of blood, the largest donation in one day to date.

This is the greatest amount it is possible to give since only 160 pint bottles are carried for one day on the mobile blood donor unit.

Though Red Cross donor officials feared cancellations may bring today's donation down, work began as usual today at 10:45 a. m. at the Gardner building.

FLING IN MANHATTAN (WITHOUT STEAK) COSTS JUST 50 BUCKS

(By United Press)

NEW YORK—Joe Doakes and his girl can have a steak-less fling in Manhattan this fall on a $50 bill—if they put their bids in early.

Business is booming along Broadway—up an estimated 100 per cent over last year. The line forms on the right and the standing room only sign goes out about 8 p. m. Hotel owners say the chance of getting a room on a week-end are nil unless you get a reservation two weeks in advance and such stage shows as "Oklahomaz" are sold out for eight months ahead.

While prices have been pegged by the OPA, minimum charges have been upped so that Joe can't sit down in a night club for less than $3 and eight-course spreads are as rare as nylons.

If, when and where, there is steak, it will cost from $3 per person up plain. Garnished, it's more. Imported champagne, scarce but available, starts at $12 a quart.

The waiter and doorman shortage affects the night clubs, where patrons are requested by table notices to: "Be patient,, please." Customers, however, are discouraged from leaping into the kitchen after their own lobster.

Joe Doakes' $50 bill adds up this way, keeping in mind that all reservations have been made in advance:

Cocktails and dinner at Broadway restaurant, $15; seats at a Broadway play, $8.80; night club in east fifties, $10.00; cabs, tips, etc., $6.00; hotel, $8.00; total, $47.80.

That leaves $2.20 for cigarets and aspirin.

PARTY BATTLE LOOMS IN TEST OF COMMISSION

Two Republicans Favored To Succeed Bricker Pit Wits In Court Struggle.

(By International News Service)

COLUMBUS — (INS) — The approaching supreme court test of the legality of the Ohio post-war planning commission will bring with it the first direct conflict between two of the men most prominently mentioned to succeed Governor Bricker should the latter decide not to seek a fourth term.

They are Lieut.-Gov. Paul M. Herbert, who as chairman of the commission will uphold its validity, and Thomas J. Herbert, who as attorney general will defend State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson's refusal to pay the commission's expenses.

The commission was believed in some circles to be illegal because it includes in its membership numerous legislators, in apparent violation of a constitutional prohibition against solons serving on commissions having sovereign power during their term as legislators or for one year thereafter.

Both Democrats and Republicans have gone on record as favoring a court test to determine its validity, so that its work can either proceed unhampered or else be transferred to some other body. Governor Bricker, a Republican, and State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, the only elective Democrat left in the statehouse, both have stated that a test would be desirable, and that politics should not taint the testing.

The commission went so far as to pick two expense vouchers for a test—one a Democrat, Rep. A. Lee Fair of Holmes county, and the other of Republican Paul Herbert. The latter is a 67-cent luncheon check from a Cleveland sub-committee meeting while Fair has submitted a voucher for $1. When Ferguson refuses to pay the vouchers and Paul Herbert mandamuses him to collect, a court test of the commission's validity will result.

However, the fact that the two Herberts—both lawyers—will be on opposite sides of the fence in this court battle undoubtedly will be watched with great interest. Politics on an inter-party basis may be out, but a little intra-party betting among Republicans is sure to hinge on the outcome.

Should Bricker retire from the gubernatorial picture next year to seek the Republican presidential nomination, as it is generally predicted he will, four men are likely to battle it out for the Republican nomination to succeed him. They are the two Herberts, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright, and Mayor James Garfield Stewart of Cincinnati.

It would be quite an advantage for one of the Herberts to say in that case that he could boast a comparatively recent and very important court decision over the other. Hence, there may be more to the test case than meets the eye.

Harrington Tells Rotary Club of Airport Activities

Mansfield as the hub of air transportation in north central Ohio was envisioned yesterday by James R. Harrington, president of Harrington Air Service, Inc., in an address before members of the Rotary club meeting at the airport for their weekly luncheon meeting.

Basing his predictions on the development of a Class 4 airport here by the Civil Aeronautics Authority, Harrington told the 65 members that Mansfield could expect to become an outstanding center for air line service.

Harrington's talk followed a tour by members of the 15 buildings at the port, including administrative offices, maintenance shops, and classrooms.

Also introduced by John S. Jones, program chairman, were Capt. Ward Harshbarger, commanding army air force fliers at the port, and Elmer Clark, resident flight supervisor for the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

Harrington traced the present development of the field and outlines what Mansfield could expect from a major port commercially after the war.

POLICE HUNT MISSING GIRL

Check Theory Witness Was Spirited Away To Keep From Testifying.

Mansfield police today were investigating the disappearance of a 17-year-old girl, principal witness for the prosecution in a case involving contributing charges against the girl's step-father and mother, Lawrence and Marie Lyons, 352 Springmill street.

Police Chief Meade K. Bates expressed the belief that Lyons, who is in the county jail, took the girl to a hide-out near Danville, Knox county, to prevent her from testifying at her parents' trial Oct. 1 in county juvenile court.

Bates said the girl had been traced to a home near Danville, but when officers went there for her, she was gone. A 17-year-old girl friend was being held today by police who believe she knows something of the Lyons girl's whereabouts.

Lyons, 32, and his wife, 33, were returned to the county jail Monday when their bondsman withdrew their $500 and $300 bonds. They were jailed first on Aug. 12 after the girl accused Lyons of improper conduct with her over a six-year period.

Lyons and the girl's mother pleaded innocent to charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and were released a few days after their arrest to await trial. Police said the girl disappeared during the period the couple was out of jail.

SPEED WORK ON YOUTH CENTER

J. A. C. Officials Say 'Open House' To Be Held For Parents Next Week.

With remodeling work at Playteen moving ahead rapidly, Junior Association of Commerce officials were today making plans for the opening of the teen-age recreation center next week.

J. A. C. President Edwin Balyeat said today open house for parents only will be held at the Park avenue east center Wednesday evening. Parents of the youngsters eligible to take part in Playteen are being invited to look over the project before the formal opening.

On Saturday night, Sept. 25, Playteen will be opened to the members, pupils in the last four grades of school in Mansfield and the surrounding community. Applications for membership may be obtained at all Isaly stores, Sutters, South End Medicine shop, Cy's Sandwich shop, Shaw's, Hoefflers, Ven-Mar, Saylor's, Sloan's, Johns park, Paul's Friendly store, Brown's, Anderson's, Smoke House and the schools.

Application cards may be exchanged for membership cards at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. A three months' membership costs the applicant one dollar.

Balyeat said today the remodeling of the rooms would cost nearly $400 more than first estimated leaving the Playteen fund $300 short of the $1,400 required for the project.

GETS PROMISE

City Told New Fire Ladder Truck Ready In October.

Mansfield today had been promised delivery of a new $18,000 fire ladder truck shortly after Oct. 1 and priority for a new 750-gallon pumper which the city wants to purchase next year.

Mayor W. J. Locke said he learned in Columbus yesterady that the new aerial ladder truck will be ready a little later than anticipated, but it should be here in two or three weeks.

By obtaining priority now for the new fire pumper, the city will be able to get faster delivery of it in 1944, the mayor said. The truck won't be ordered until enough funds are available from the city's fire levy which is producing money for the new fire protection equipment.

Sport Podge

by REX HESS

I fear my friend Watty Slabaugh is becoming modest.

With a number of other Mansfield racquet swingers, Watson went to Galion's Heise park Sunday to compete in the annual North Central Ohio tennis tournament, postponed from a rainy Labor day weekend.

And Watson brought back the singles championship and a share of the doubles title. And never a word did Watty tell me about it.

Modesty is a virtue. And Watson is a virtuous young man, I think.

Repeating his Woodlawn Tennis club finals victory over Mansfield city champion Lowell Bourns, Slabaugh again took Bourns in the finals of the N. C. O. tourney.

And Slabaugh and Bourns, who hold both the Mansfield and the Woodlawn doubles titles, added the N. C. O. crown to their list, winning from Mansfielders Bob Enos and Frank Gadfield in the finals.

Packing a two-day tournament into one day, the racqueteers found themselves arm and leg weary by the time the finals were reached, and cut them to one set. The singles score was 6-2, and doubles 6-1.

* * *

It was pretty much of a Mansfield tournament. With only four Mansfielders entered, all four got into the quarter finals, where Slabaugh defeated Enos 7-5, 6-3.

That left three in the semi-finals where Bourns won from Gadfield 6-2, 6-3, and Slabaugh defeated Hoff of Medina 6-3, 6-3.

Al Stonebrook, a former Woodlawn player, was entered from Galion, losing in the first round.

Well, gee whiz. I just happened to think. Maybe it wasn't entirely modesty that kept Watty from reporting his Galion conquests. Maybe Watty just isn't telling me anything any more, since I reported his recent business trip to New York during the Forest Hills tournament.

I understand the boys in the office at Westinghouse sent him a telegram while he was in New York, instructing him to:

N.C.O. Schools Lift Grid Lid

Mt. Vernon Fills Open Date Friday Night.

SHELBY — All of the North Central Ohio league schools will open the 1943 football season over the coming week-end against non-conference teams

Mt. Vernon, who had an open date scheduled for this week-end, made arrangements with Columbus South for a game on the Yellow Jackets' field for Friday night.

A heavier and more experienced Shelby Whippet eleven will play host to Norwalk high school here under the floodlights on the same night. Shelby suffered a 27 to 0 defeat at Norwalk last year. It was the first time that the Maple City eleven had beaten the Whippets since 1937. The Whippet line-up will include six veterans that started the Norwalk game last season, Jack Robb, Bill Dodge, Joe Garns, Archie Steele, Bob Roberts and Bob Miller. In addition, Coach Larry Swackhamer will have six other veterans, Herb Poland, Harley Jones, Don Monn, Ira Clabaugh, Salvatore DeVito and Bob Elliott, to fill the vacant positions.

Out of the line-up that started the Norwalk game last season for the Whippets, only five are missing through graduation or to the armed forces, Harry Crawford, Francis Hiatt, Ray Simon, Wayne Briggs and Donald Broderick.

Marion entertains Mansfield on Saturday night, Ashland goes to Willard on Friday night while the same night Galion entertains Tiffin Calvert and Bucyrus goes to Tiffin Columbian.

PITT GRID SQUAD LOSES 4 IN 'RAID'

PITTSBURGH — (UP) — Clark Shaughnessy, Pitt football coach whose Panthers meet Ohio State university here, Nov. 6, minimized the loss of four and possibly six freshmen players to "raiding" southern schools today.

"They came right on our campus and offered them terms they couldn't afford to turn down," Shaughnessy said of the southern schools.

Scramble Grows Hot For Second

Both Circuits Boast Spirited Competition.

By JUDSON BAILEY
(By Associated Press)

IN THE ABSENCE of anything resembling a pennant race, the major leagues are offering the next best thing—a spirited scramble for second place in both circuits.

The glamor and gold is not the same, but the struggle between the Washington Senators and Cleveland Indians in the American league and between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds in the National is just as torrid as if the stake were first place.

The Senators, who finished seventh a year ago, are earnestly seeking the second slot this season, and in the last five days have put on a spurt of five consecutive victories. This drive, coupled with a double setback for Cleveland last night, was enough to place Washington again in the American league's runner-up spot.

Playing the Boston Red Sox in a night game, the Senators had their hands full, but a single by Gerry Priddy in the seventh inning knocked in the deciding run for a 3-2 victory.

At St. Louis the Indians, who previously had won six out of seven games, were tumbled twice by the Browns 3-0 and 7-1 and dropped back to third place by a game and a half.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who moved into second place last weekend on the crest of a winning streak that numbered 14 victories in 15 games, were blanked 3-0 by the Boston Braves and saw their margin over the idle Cincinnati Reds shaved to half a game.

In the only other senior circuit encounter, the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies, who already were scheduled for a game at 11 o'clock (EWT) this morning, struggled to a 4-4 ten-inning tie in a night game called by baseball curfew rules at 1 o'clock this morning after twice being interrupted by weather. As the result today's program at Philadelphia was made into a morning doubleheader.

The New York Yankees downed the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 with an inept exhibition in which Bill Zuber granted 11 bases on balls in 4 1/3 innings and Detroit divided a doubleheader with Chicago. The White Sox took the first 7-1 and the Tigers the second 7-5.

Shirley Fry Match Booked

Girl Tennis Champion Plays Here Sunday.

Shirley Fry, 16-year-old Akron tennis star, will appear in an exhibition match at Woodlawn Tennis club Sunday at 2 p. m.

Final arrangements have been completed for the long awaited appearance here of the Akron high school junior, who a year ago was ranked 13th among women tennis players of the nation.

This year she went to the semi-finals of the national junior championships at Chicago, and paired with national singles champion Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., to win the junior doubles title.

* * *

She will meet either Lowell Bourns or Watty Slabaugh in a two out of three set exhibition, and then a Woodlawn doubles team will meet a team from Akron University club.

Sinkwich Signs Detroit Contract

DETROIT — (AP) — Smiling Frankie Sinkwich, who will run, pass and kick for the Detroit Lions this football season, made a big impression here before he ever laid hands on a football for the pro team.

The whiz of the southern college gridirons, where he became an All-American, had owner Fred L. Mandel, jr., of the Lions down on his one-yard line, figuratively speaking, before he got Frankie's name on a contract.

Finally Mandel emerged to announce the signing and pay tribute, incidentally, to the former Georgia star's class as a bargainer.

"If he can play football as well as he can argue about dough," Mandel said, "we ought to win the championship easily."

Frankie, whom the U. S. Marines discharged because of physical disabilities, hustled to the Lions' training camp at a suburban golf course right after signing.

"I can hardly wait to put on a uniform," he said

Cleveland Team Still Undefeated

YOUNGSTOWN — (AP) — Only six teams remain in competition in the 30th annual amateur baseball federation tournament and two of them will be dropped today in a schedule paring four once-beaten teams.

The two teams as yet undefeated in the two-defeats-and-out schedule are the Cleveland Bartunek Clothiers and Detroit's defending champion Auto club nine, paired in a floodlight game tonight.

Fort Wayne, Ind.'s city light, who booted the Birmingham, Ala., Acipcos out of play yesterday, meet the strong Atlanta ordnance depot in one of the afternoon encounters. The other is between the Pontiac, Mich., Yellow Coaches and Waterbury, Conn.

The Bartuneks handed Pontiac its first defeat last night 9-1, on a two-hit pitching performance by Paul O'Dea, former Springfield, O., Mid-Atlantic leaguer. Detroit was idle with a bye yesterday. Fort Wayne shut out the Birmingham team, 2-0.

* * *

Waterbury eliminated the Pittsburgh Oakmonts by handing the Pennsylvanians their second defeat, 3-1, and Atlanta put the Baltimore Spring Grove nine out of the tournament with an 18-6 victory.

Brewers Cling to Three-Game Lead

(By Associated Press)

Milwaukee moved another step toward the American Association pennant last night, defeating Minneapolis 7-3 while second place Indianapolis was shutting out Toledo 2-0. The season ends Sunday.

* * *

Indianapolis remained three games behind the leaders after squeezing out the fourth-place Mud Hens behind the nine-hit pitching of Jim Trexler.

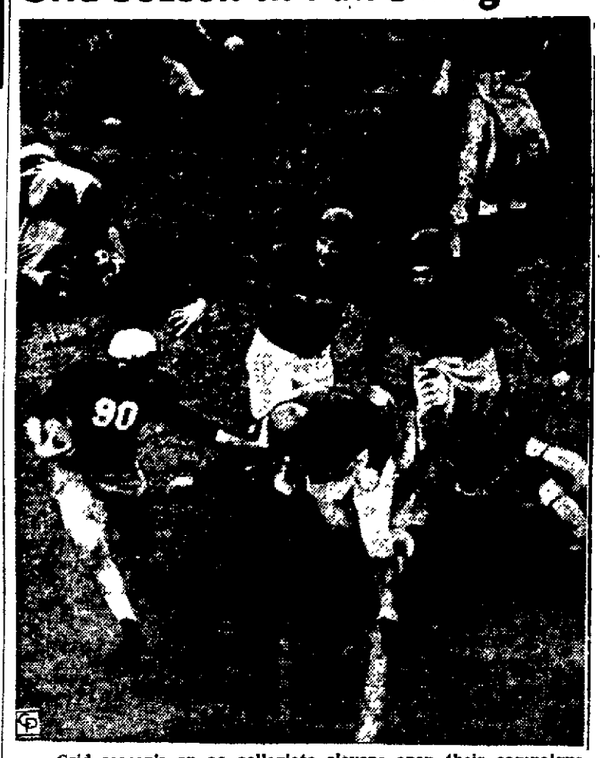
Although Preacher Roe held Louisville to five hits and struck out seven, Columbus dropped a 2-1 decision and fell to five games out of first place.

Kansas City moved into seventh place by a scant one point margin in splitting a double header with St. Paul, the Saints dropping to the cellar. The Blues took the first game 1-0 while losing the nightcap 1-5.

Grid Season In Full Swing



Grid season's on as collegiate elevens open their campaigns weeks early. At New Haven, Conn., Yale's Bulldogs edged Muhlenberg, 13 to 6, in a hard-fought game. This action is from that game. Pickett, Yale fullback, uses the straight-arm here.

Sport Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK — (AP) — With the major league pro football season opening Sunday—and it'll outclass the college brand this year just the way big league baseball does—this corner offers a scouting report from one of the biggest and best scouts in the business. . . . To get it over quick, he picks the Bears and the Redskins.

The way our informant sees it, you can laugh off those three pre-season games the Redskins lost . . . they couldn't do much scrimmaging with a 28-man squad, he explains, and they had to get ready in a hurry for the all-stars with 80 men. . . . But Sammy Baugh seems to have recovered from whatever ailment was bothering him at the start and is hitting his pass receivers in his best form. . . . The older players are just beginning to get into shape and when they do, they'll be tough. The Skins may lose Jack Jenkins, who looks good, but they have a whale of a defense player in Wilbur Moore. . . . Their only competition in the east should come from the Giants, who'll be a lot better than last year.

The Bears and Packers will have another race in the western division but the Bears, as usual, seem to have the ball club. . . . They have those two big guards, Fortmann and Musso and a good-looking boy named Merkel from Kansas—also Sid Luckman and Bill Geyer, who is stronger and better than last year. . . . Curly Lambeau has been boasting about the Packers' line but the inside dope is that the line isn't so good as he claims. Tony Canadeo's passing to Don Huston is Okay and so is a new back named Fritsch. . . . Detroit's Lions have a good passing club but so far their running attack hasn't looked so hot. . . . Frankie Sinkwich may improve that department. . . . You can lump the other clubs under the "I dunno" heading.

When Bill Hetzel, rookie infielder, walked out on the Boston Braves the other day, he gave this brand new explanation for his act: "Big league baseball is too high toned for me; always having to wear coats and ties, imagine."

* * *

Samuel B. Cohen, Meridan (Conn.) Journal: "The Senators have a Candini, the Braves a Cardoni and the Giants could have used a Houdini to get them out of the bonds of the National league cellar."

* * *

From somewhere in the South Pacific, Marine Lieut. David Simmons, who played on Buck Shaw's Santa Clara grid teams, send this word: "Many times I cursed football for giving me my bum knees and legs that hampered certain phases of my Officers' Training, but after half a year out here in the field, I have decided the pointers learned from football about handling men outweigh its disadvantages."

Browns Beat Tribe's Aces

Bagby and Smith Lose In Twi-Night Tilts.

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Battered by the St. Louis Browns in both ends of a twi-night double-header, Cleveland's Indians are back in third place today, a game and a half below the Washington Nationals.

The twin defeat was registered last night. The Tribe tallied only one run in 18 innings of play, losing 3-1 and 7-1. The defeats were charged to Cleveland's best—Jim Bagby and Al Smith.

After today's western road trip finale with the Browns, the Indians return home Friday night to open a four-game stand.

Steve Sundra pitched a four-hit shutout in yesterday's twilight affray, aided by Vernon Stephens' 19th and 20th home runs. Bagby gave up five hits in six innings before being relieved by Mike Naymick, who yielded one safety in two frames.

Stephens cracked loose his first circuit smash in the second and duplicated it in the sixth.

In the afterpiece, Nelson Potter scattered nine hits, and the Brownies got to Smith and Vernon for the same number.

The Indians tallied first when Ray Mack singled in the third inning, stole second and raced home on a single by Russ Peters.

* * *

St. Louis scored twice in the list of the same inning, however, on successive singles by Don Gutteridge, Mike Kreevich and George McQuinn, and an error by catcher Buddy Rosar. The Browns made three runs in the fifth on doubles by Mark Christman and Stephens, after Smith issued bases on balls to McQuinn and Chet Laabs. The final two markers came in the sixth, in an attack that started when Roy Cullenbine misjudged Frankie Hayes' outfield fly that was good for two bases.

PRACTICE AERIALS

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio State's Buckeyes today continued rigid practice on both pass offense and defense, indicating that Coach Paul Brown is again counting heavily on good overhead attack to keep the Scarlet and Gray in the winning column this fall.

Calls Tyger-President Game Tops In State

Writer Says Mansfield-Marion Game Is High School Standout.

By SAM FOGG, INS Sports Writer.

OHIO'S high school football elevens, long recognized as among the best in the nation, will begin their ten-week 1943 season with a full slate of action and interest this week-end.

For the first season in more than a decade, the mythical state title is not being conceded without contest to either Massillon or Canton McKinley, the Stark county powerhouse combines. The Tigers, champions for seven consecutive seasons, lost not only the title but the psychological edge held over opponents when they fell before McKinley last fall. The McKinley Bulldogs are themselves vulnerable to upset and heavily hit by losses to the armed forces.

The small Canton schools, Lehman, Timken and Lincoln, as well as Steubenville, Martins Ferry, Mansfield, Tiltonsville, Toledo Libbey and Dayton Oakwood have justifiable title ambitions and are ready to contest any claims made by any eleven before the season is played.

Still other schools such as Cadiz, Athens, Zanesville, Marion, Galion, Dover and Akron Kenmore are showing distinct signs of speed, power and experience which make for upsets.

The top notch contest of the week will match Marion and Mansfield. Both elevens are ably coached and are strong schoolboy outfits and their meeting Saturday at Marion should leave one of the two rivals dominating the northwest sector.

Both Massillon and McKinley are scheduled for troublesome opposition in volving that intangible element known as fierce rivalry. The Tigers open athletic relations with Canton Lincoln at Massillon while McKinley meets their city rival, Canton Timken.

Both the Lions and the Trojans are capable of forcing the two major elevens to their utmost and should provide ample test of the potential power of both. The Lions will be playing their first Canton-Massillon rivalry while Massillon in turn, heavy and experienced, rankles from the McKinley defeat last fall and is eager to begin another victory streak.

McKinley with one of the fastest backfields in the history of the school, has uneasy recollections of Timken teams spilling highly favored Bulldog cage squads. The Trojans each year aim for their larger city rival and in the short time since becoming a full grown high school, they've had a fair degree of success.

Cadiz and St. Clairsville, both with high hopes, veteran material and weight, will clash to determine their prospects in another headline clash. Zanesville's Blue Flashes, who have become exceedingly active under the new tutelage of Joe Austin, get their first test from an invading Dayton Fairview squad.

The Tiltonsville-Dillonville tilt will have the 24-game winning streak of the Tiltonsville eleven at stake. Cleveland Lincoln will risk a 22-game string against Colinwood whom they defeated in the charity championship contest last November. Defiance, unbeaten in 1942, opens against Paulding and Toledo Libbey, likewise undefeated last year, faces Toledo Central. Youngstown Woodrow Wilson, unbeaten last year but hurt by military losses this season, meets Struthers. Martins Ferry opens against Yorkville, an ambitious Class B competitor.

Ticket Sale Goes Rapidly

East Side of Stadium Open For Season Ducats.

With the opening game of the Mansfield Tyger home football schedule still two weeks away, the sale of season tickets to Tyger games is within 200 of last season's high mark, a mark reached in mid-season a year ago, before the Massillon game.

"All tickets in section F are gone," Ticket Chairman George Sherman reported today. "Those in G are nearly gone, but there are still plenty of good seats in H."

Section F is on the 550 yard line in front of the press box on the west side of the field. Section G is just north of F on the 40 yard line, and H is on the 30.

However, Mansfield fans still have plenty of chance for 50-yard-line seats, Sherman pointed out.

"We won't have the visiting crowds this season on the east side of the field because of war transportation difficulties," Sherman said, "so we'll gladly fix up groups of season tickets on the east side."

Tickets are on sale at the high school and Tawse's Pharmacy.

Squirrel Hunting Season Opened

COLUMBUS — (U.P.) — Squirrel hunting season opened today in 52 central and southern Ohio counties, and will open next Wednesday in the 36 northern counties, to last until Sept. 30 throughout the state.

* * *

The daily bag limit is four pelts, as last year, and it is illegal to have more than eight in possession at any one time after the first day.

* * *

Conservation Commissioner Don Waters said squirrels are plentiful throughout the state.

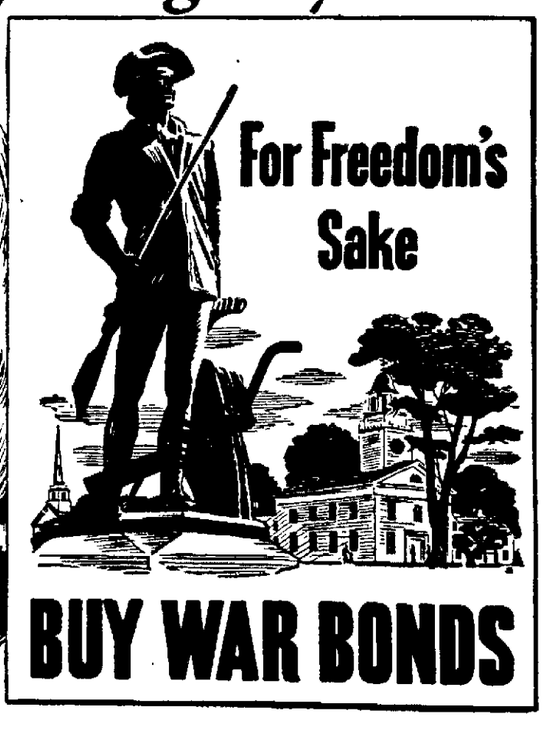
"You'll always be glad you did"



None of us will be completely happy until the day of Victory. The day our boys are back; our sons, brothers and husbands. We want our way of life to go on, and we're fighting to make sure it does. We want Jim or Bill (you know his name) to be sitting right there in his easy chair with his pipe or studying in his own room. We want to have friends in for dinner again . . . and a big roast beef for them. We want to be able to take a long drive in the country, buy a new car, have fun, be happy. We want to live again on that sunny side of things of which Coca-Cola, itself, is such a symbol. There are so many things we want back. Yes, so many. None of them will come unless we win. All, and more, will come when we win. The War Bonds you buy will hasten the day . . . the day of Victory.

HONORS MEN OF WASP, LOST ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

(By International News Service)

QUINCY, Mass.—Just one year ago today, the Quincy-born aircraft carrier Wasp died in its infancy, pierced by Japanese torpedoes—and with it exploded forever the pre-Pearl harbor myth of the "softness" of American youth.

Amid explosions, flames and bullets, the 1,800 crew members—many of them youngsters of 18, 19 and 20—fought courageously to save the ship. They risked their lives to help their shipmates, especially the wounded.

"There was never any panic," said their senior medical officer, Commander B. W. Hogan (MC) U. S. N., of the bureau of medicine and survery in Washington.

Commander Hogan's study of the crew's behavior in the face of death, published in the American Journal of Psychiatry, loomed as an important tribute, on the anniversary of the Wasp's sinking.

"For a number of years," he declared, "I have heard psychiatrists, educators, clergy and others speak of the deterioration of the American youth—born in the drunken, lawless prohibition era of the twenties, raised in the depression days of the thirties.

"I tell you that we here should pay tribute to these 18-19-20-year-old men who are winning the war and remaining stable."

Commander Hogan painted a dramatic picture of scenes aboard the vessel when two torpedoes struck and exploded:

"Nearly everyone was knocked down and bounced around like a rubber ball. A column of water shot up the side of the ship. Men on the signal bridge stood a foot deep in water. A yellowish sheet of flame spread with lightning speed up the starboard side, searing and flaming everything in its path. the oil covered water and the bombers and fighters on the hangar deck.

"The gasoline, ammunition and bombs exploded. The flames enveloped the men and guns on the gun gallery. A hailstorm of bullets and shrapnel rained out of the hangar deck and from the gun galleries. Destruction, death and fire spread rapidly. The ready ammunition and powder bags were ignited, burned and exploded, and created a constant din.

"It sounded as if all our guns were shooting. Heavy clouds of black smoke enveloped the forward part of the ship. Each blast would send men, missiles and planks hurtling through the air."

The Wasps' officers and men were "magnicifent," declared Commander Hogan, and "they all desired to be assigned to carrier duty and get back into the fight."

Today, as credit is paid to the valiant crew of the Wasp, another Quincy-launched Wasp, more powerful and heavier armed than its predecessor, now serves on the battle line.

NO. 4 BOOK DUE

New Ration Booklet To Be Issued From Schools.

According to an announcement yesterday by the regional Office of Price Administration in Cleveland, Ohioans will receive ration book No. 4 by applying personally at public schools from Oct. 25 to 30.

Superintendent of Schools W. L. Miller said today he had received no official notification of OPA plans.

Book No. 4 will contain enough stamps, half the size now in use, to last for two years, and will contain "spares" for items that may be rationed later, the announcement said.

HAS HOTEL, BUT NO FURNISHINGS

Man Who Bought Stevens Really Knows About Shortages.

CHICAGO — (U.P.) — Arnold S. Kirkeby, who is learning about war-time shortages the hard way, went shopping today for 150,000 pieces of silverware and 3,850 bed springs and mattresses.

Before Nov. 1 Kirkeby also must buy 40 miles of carpeting, 37,000 yards of drapery and tapestry fittings, 5,000 wall pictures, and 3,000 bold-painted chairs. And if anyone knows where he can pick up 30,000 pieces of china, Kirkeby will be glad to hear from him.

The shopping spree is necessary for the re-opening of the world's largest hotel—the Stevens—which Kirkeby bought from the army.

75 AT ROAST

More than 75 Richland County Young Democrats attended the corn roast held last night at South park.

Miss Mary Newcomer, president, introduced James Eberly, the newly appointed Richland county executive committee chairman. He in turn presented the party candidates for the November election in the city.

The group will meet next October 12 at Democratic headquarters.

HELD AS EMBEZZLER

TOLEDO—(U.P.)—John E. Welsh, 35, of Ada, who pleaded guilty in federal court to charges of embezzling approximately $15,000 from an Ada bank, was held on $3,000 bond today.

TWA Places Mansfield on New Coast to Coast Airline Plan

Marietta, Springfield, Steubenville, Hamilton and Middletown.

"Ohio, one of the business and manufacturing centers of the world, has always been one of the main focal points on TWA's main route," Frye said.

"The proposed service in Ohio would encompass all larger communities and at the same time provide through schedules and direct connections from many other population centers."

He added that connections provided by TWA with other air carriers would provide considerably improved facilities in a north and south direction, as well as in the east-west pattern of the TWA route system."

All the new routes would be operated with multi-engine airliners.

"This intensive service is part of a plan TWA is proposing for sound airline development," Frye explained. "This plan has as its basic principle the serving of the community of interest between present route cities and those cities immediately on or adjacent to our routes. By integrating the communications needs of all these communities, an air transport system of greatest public benefit and maximum traffic flow is created, with a minimum extension of essential route miles."

The program could be put into effect today "if aircraft were available," Frye said.

This statement, and the need of hard-surfaced runways to handle landing of commercial aircraft, indicates that the service would not be available to Mansfield, at least until the Civil Aeronautics Authority's proposed development program is completed.

FIND TRAIL OF OSR FUGITIVE

County Officers Learn He Stole Clothes, Cash In Course of Escape.

Police throughout Ohio today were hunting one of four trusties who escaped from the Ohio State Reformatory last week-end after Sheriff Frank Robinson reported the discovery of a number of clues pointing out the movements of the escapee during the past two days.

Darwin Thatcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thatcher, 451 Woodland avenue, reported to the sheriff he found a bundle of clothes belonging to a reformatory inmate in the woods east of Westbrook Country club. He was searching through the woods for golf balls when he came upon the clothes, he reported.

In the pocket of the trousers, Sheriff Robinson said was a slip of paper indicating the clothes belonged to Warren Lambert, 21, sentenced from Summit county for 15 years for burglary and larceny.

As the authorities reconstructed Lambert's movements, he first broke into the home of Norman Frampton on Hanna road between 4 and 4:30 p. m. yesterday where he stole a blue suit, tan oxfords, tan sport shirt and $1 in pennies from a penny bank.

From there he went to the woods near the County club, authorities believe, and discarded his clothes for the stolen ones. He was later seen at a garage in Roseland where he asked the way to Chicago and started off down Trimble road.

Company F Guards Go to Akron for Week-End Drills

Thirty members of Mansfield's Ohio State Guard Company F will attend an overnight camp to be held at Akron over the week-end for regional maneuvers of the Third infantry.

Capt. Glenn L. Bierly said guardsmen will be transported to Akron in state highway department trucks, one group leaving at 3:30 p. m. Saturday and another at 6 p. m. They will return Sunday afternoon.

Bierly also announced the names of guardsmen who have received merit ribbons. These are Cpl. Robert E. Young, and the following privates: Arthur C. Bell, Arthur B. Callihan, Charles A. Edmonstone, Donnell Gale (now in army), William L. Hedrick, Darrell R. Hudson, Don C. Yoakam and William D. Beer.

Beer and another member of the company, Pfc. James Bierly, son of the captain, are to leave for the army next week. Capt. Bierly said applicants for these two vacancies are now being received.

PLANE FOUND

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The navy today reported that an airplane missing since Sept. 7 on a routine flight from Norfolk, Va., had been located, and that its pilot and passenger were found dead.

They were listed at Lt. Newell Van Sickle, 914 East 52nd street, Indianapolis, Ind., and Comdr. Robert W. Bedilion of 315 Elm Terrace, Marietta, O.

OPEN DAILY

Woodcraft shop at the Y. M. C. A. is now open daily from 3:30 until 9 p. m., Secretary Ralph B. Chapman announced today. During the summer the shop was open throughout the day.

This is a free project, Chapman said, and open to boys who are not members of the "Y" as well as to members. It is in charge of Edward Moran, instructor.

TOUR PLANTS

War Service Speakers See Manpower Needs.

Ten members of the civilian defense war services speakers' bureau visited Mansfield industrial plants today to gain first-hand knowledge of the manpoyer shortage so they can discuss it before city organizations.

Members of the speakers' group, headed by Mrs. Eugene Weinberger, are Mrs. Frank Rudd, Mrs. C. F. Sheriff, Mrs. J. L. Stevens, Mrs. Gilbert Dobson, Mrs. John W. Graham, Mrs. George Hout, Mrs. Della Cochran, Mrs. Hamilton Walter, and Miss Leona Hout.

The speakers will appear before clubs, sororities, and labor union and lodge auxiliaries to discuss the need for more women in war industries, the cadet nurses programs, and the salvage campaign.

Speakers may be obtained by calling Mrs. Weinberger or civilian defense headquarters in the city building.

DRIVER HURT

Injured Taxi Driver To Face Police Charges.

Injured late Tuesday in a traffic accident at East First and Foster street, Tom J. Blandi, 17-year-old taxi driver, today faced a charge of driving through a stop sign.

Although Blandi, driver for the Service Taxi company, was not believed injured seriously, he is being held for observation in General hospital. Police said they would file the traffic charge as soon as he is released.

Police said the taxi driven by Blandi crashed into the side of a car driven by Henry Carl Berg, 51, of 221 South Foster street, at 4:50 p. m. yesterday at the intersection, knocking Berg's car up over the sidewalk onto a lawn.

A truck driver who had stopped at the intersection told officers Blandi drove past him, the taxi crashing into the side of the other car.

NEW RECORD

160 Pints of Blood Donated on First Day.

Richland county blood donors set a new mark yesterday as they gave 160 pints of blood, the largest donation in one day to date.

This is the greatest amount it is possible to give since only 160 pint bottles are carried for one day on the mobile blood donor unit.

Though Red Cross donor officials feared cancellations may bring today's donation down, work began as usual today at 10:45 a. m. at the Gardner building.

FLING IN MANHATTAN (WITHOUT STEAK) COSTS JUST 50 BUCKS

(By United Press)

NEW YORK—Joe Doakes and his girl can have a steak-less fling in Manhattan this fall on a $50 bill—if they put their bids in early.

Business is booming along Broadway—up an estimated 100 per cent over last year. The line forms on the right and the standing room only sign goes out about 8 p. m. Hotel owners say the chance of getting a room on a week-end are nil unless you get a reservation two weeks in advance and such stage shows as "Oklahomaz" are sold out for eight months ahead.

While prices have been pegged by the OPA, minimum charges have been upped so that Joe can't sit down in a night club for less than $3 and eight-course spreads are as rare as nylons.

If, when and where, there is steak, it will cost from $3 per person up plain. Garnished, it's more. Imported champagne, scarce but available, starts at $12 a quart.

The waiter and doorman shortage affects the night clubs, where patrons are requested by table notices to: "Be patient, please." Customers, however, are discouraged from leaping into the kitchen after their own lobster.

Joe Doakes' $50 bill adds up this way, keeping in mind that all reservations have been made in advance:

Cocktails and dinner at Broadway restaurant, $15; seats at a Broadway play, $8.80; night club in east fifties, $10.00; cabs, tips, etc., $6.00; hotel, $8.00; total, $47.80.

That leaves $2.20 for cigarets and aspirin.

Two Republicans Favored To Succeed Bricker Pit Wits In Court Struggle.

(By International News Service)

COLUMBUS — (INS) — The approaching supreme court test of the legality of the Ohio post-war planning commission will bring with it the first direct conflict between two of the men most prominently mentioned to succeed Governor Bricker should the latter decide not to seek a fourth term.

They are Lieut.-Gov. Paul M. Herbert, who as chairman of the commission will uphold its validity, and Thomas J. Herbert, who as attorney general will defend State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson's refusal to pay the commission's expenses.

The commission was believed in some circles to be illegal because it includes in its membership numerous legislators, in apparent violation of a constitutional prohibition against solons serving on commissions having sovereign power during their term as legislators or for one year thereafter.

Both Democrats and Republicans have gone on record as favoring a court test to determine its validity, so that its work can either proceed unhampered or else be transferred to some other body. Governor Bricker, a Republican, and State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, the only elective Democrat left in the statehouse, both have stated that a test would be desirable, and that politics shoud not taint the testing.

The commission went so far as to pick two expense vouchers for a test—one a Democrat, Rep. A. Lee Fair of Holmes county, and the other of Republican Paul Herbert. The latter is a 67-cent luncheon check from a Cleveland sub-committee meeting while Fair has submitted a voucher for $1. When Ferguson refuses to pay the vouchers and Paul Herbert mandamuses him to collect, a court test of the commission's validity will result.

However, the fact that the two Herberts—both lawyers—will be on opposite sides of the fence in this court battle undoubtedly will be watched with great interest. Politics on an inter-party basis may be out, but a little intra-party betting among Republicans is sure to hinge on the outcome.

Should Bricker retire from the gubernatorial picture next year to seek the Republican presidential nomination, as it is generally predicted he will, four men are likely to battle it out for the Republican nomination to succeed him. They are the two Herberts, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright, and Mayor James Garfield Stewart of Cincinnati.

It would be quite an advantage for one of the Herberts to say in that case that he could boast a comparatively recent and very important court decision over the other. Hence there may be more to the test case than meets the eye.

Harrington Tells Rotary Club of Airport Activities

Mansfield as the hub of air transportation in north central Ohio was envisioned yesterday by James R. Harrington, president of Harrington Air Service, Inc., in an address before members of the Rotary club meeting at the airport for their weekly luncheon meeting.

Basing his predictions on the development of a Class 4 airport here by the Civil Aeronautics Authority, Harrington told the 65 members that Mansfield could expect to become an outstanding center for air line service.

Harrington's talk followed a tour by members of the 15 buildings at the port, including administrative offices, maintenance shops, and classrooms.

Also introduced by John S. Jones, program chairman, were Capt. Ward Harshbarger, commanding army air force fliers at the port, and Elmer Clark, resident flight supervisor for the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

Harrington traced the present development of the field and outlines what Mansfield could expect from a major port commercially after the war.

POLICE HUNT MISSING GIRL

Check Theory Witness Was Spirited Away To Keep From Testifying.

Mansfield police today were investigating the disappearance of a 17-year-old girl, principal witness for the prosecution in a case involving contributing charges against the girl's step-father and mother, Lawrence and Marie Lyons, 352 Springmill street.

Police Chief Meade K. Bates expressed the belief that Lyons, who is in the county jail, took the girl to a hide-out near Danville, Knox county, to prevent her from testifying at her parents' trial Oct. 1 in county juvenile court.

Bates said the girl had been traced to a home near Danville, but when officers went there for her, she was gone. A 17-year-old girl friend was being held today by police who believe she knows something of the Lyons girl's whereabouts.

Lyons, 32, and his wife, 33, were returned to the county jail Monday when their bondsman withdrew their $500 and $300 bonds. They were jailed first on Aug. 12 after the girl accused Lyons of improper conduct with her over a six-year period.

Lyons and the girl's mother pleaded innocent to charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and were released a few days after their arrest to await trial. Police said the girl disappeared during the period the couple was out of jail.

SPEED WORK ON YOUTH CENTER

J. A. C. Officials Say 'Open House' To Be Held For Parents Next Week.

With remodeling work at Playteen moving ahead rapidly, Junior Association of Commerce officials were today making plans for the opening of the teen-age recreation center next week.

J. A. C. President Edwin Balyeat said today open house for parents only will be held at the Park avenue east center Wednesday evening. Parents of the youngsters eligible to take part in Playteen are being invited to look over the project before the formal opening.

On Saturday night, Sept. 25, Playteen will be opened to the members, pupils in the last four grades of school in Mansfield and the surrounding community. Applications for membership may be obtained at all Isaly stores, Sutters, South End Medicine shop, Cy's Sandwich shop, Shaw's, Hoefflers, Ven-Mar, Saylor's, Sloan's, Johns park, Paul's Friendly store, Brown's, Anderson's, Smoke House and the schools.

Application cards may be exchanged for membership cards at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. A three months' membership costs the applicant one dollar.

Balyeat said today the remodeling of the rooms would cost nearly $400 more than first estimated leaving the Playteen fund $300 short of the $1,400 required for the project.

GETS PROMISE

City Told New Fire Ladder Truck Ready In October.

Mansfield today had been promised delivery of a new $18,000 fire ladder truck shortly after Oct. 1 and priority for a new 750-gallon pumper which the city wants to purchase next year.

Mayor W. J. Locke said he learned in Columbus yesterday that the new aerial ladder truck will be ready a little later than anticipated, but it should be here in two or three weeks.

By obtaining priority now for the new fire pumper, the city will be able to get faster delivery of it in 1944, the mayor said. The truck won't be ordered until enough funds are available from the city's fire levy which is producing money for the new fire protection equipment.

JUDGES DON ROBES

WARREN — (INS) — Trumbull county court had its first taste of judicial apparel today, when Common Pleas Judge Lynn B. Griffith and Dewey B. McVicker wore robes to court. Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt of the Ohio supreme court attended the investiture ceremony yesterday.

If you ever need $25, $50, $100 or more quickly and simply, come to Household Finance. If you have a job so that you can repay in small monthly payments, you are welcome to apply for any amount up to $1000. The sooner you repay the less your loan costs. Example: A $50 loan repaid in 6 monthly instalments of $9.24 each costs $5.44—if repaid in one month the cost is only $1.50. No endorsers or guarantors are ever needed. We never make inquiries of friends or relatives.

MIXED TRENDS DISCOVERED IN STOCK MARKET

Narrow Variations Shown By Most Leaders In Early Trading Activity.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK — Trends were mixed in today's early stock market dealings and most leaders showed only narrow variations from the previous closings.

Modestly higher at a quiet opening were United Air Lines, U. S. Rubber, Chesapeake & Ohio, Deere and Northern Pacific. Bethlehem Steel, General Motors and Southern Pacific were off fractions.

Studied with interest in boardrooms was the estimate of the department of commerce that gross national expenditures in 1943 will reach the record total of $188,000,000,000, an increase of 24 per cent over 1942.

CHICAGO—(AP)—Grain futures influenced by good demand, continued today the upward trend of most other recent sessions. Winnipeg wheat also was higher.

Wheat opened unchanged to ⅜c up. September $1.47¾; oats unchanged to ¼c higher. September 76⅝c; and rye was ⅛c lower to ½c higher, September $1.03½.

THEATERS

Glamour on Bataan.

In "So Proudly We Hail," picture of U. S. army nurses on Bataan, now showing at the Ohio theater, three of Hollywood's most glamorous actresses, Claudette Colbert, Veronica Lake and Paulette Goddard, keep their glamor through all the rough-and-toughness of action at the front. The picture tells the story of the nurses who fought side by side with their men on Bataan and Corregidor. What happened to them before they were flown to safety in Australia, how they lived and loved on the besieged island are told in the picture.

New "Thin Man" Adventures.

Those perennial "Thin Man" sleuths, William Powell and Myrna Loy are again combining a domestic career with brilliant activities in the field of crime detection. And in "Shadow of the Thin Man," current at the Ritz theater, they romp through one of the most entertaining mystery-comedies of the year. Dickie Hall, who plays their young son, proves himself Hollywood's latest "scene stealer." Showing with the mystery is "A Stranger in Town," a dramatic expose of small town politics.

Gets New Chance.

Jane Darwell, who won the Academy award for the best supporting role as Ma Joad in "The Grapes of Wrath," makes her strongest bid to repeat the honor with a stirring performance in "The Ox-Bow Incident," which is current at the Madison. Indeed, the two roles are not dissimilar in several respects. Both films were made by 20th Century-Fox and both were outdoor pictures of exceptional dramatic quality. Miss Darwell is featured in support of Henry Fonda in the filmization of Walter Van Tilburg Clark's best-seller, "Gals Incorporated" is the second feature.

MANSFIELD NEWS IN BRIEF

Bicycle Stolen—Robert Shoup, 36 West Augustine avenue, last night reported the theft of his bicycle from near the Park theater.

Speeder Fined—Harold H. Sheehan, Erie, Pa., cited Sept. 7 for speeding, was fined $10 and costs in municipal court this morning after he pleaded guilty.

Scout Leaders Meet—Girl Scout leaders and members of the council of the organization will meet at North Lake park pavilion at 6:30 p. m. Thursday. Each person is to bring her own "nosebag" lunch, it was announced today.

Checks Athletes — Dr. W. B. Wild, city-county health commissioner, said today he would go to Bellville this afternoon to give football and basketball players their annual physical check-up before the season gets under way.

Meets Thursday — The Richland County Beekeepers association will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the common pleas courtroom at the courthouse, Ralph Peat, president, announced today.

Stolen at Station—Ora Briggs, 346 Woodland avenue, said today that the $120 stolen at his filling station at 472 Bowman street Sunday night was taken from the filling station office and not from his car, as previously reported.

Must Serve Sentence—Arrested last night by police on a disorderly conduct charge, Ray Rutledge, Mansfield, today was ordered in municipal court to serve out a 30-day county jail sentence imposed last April for assault and battery. He also was fined $10 and costs today by Judge H. H. Schettler.

Money Stolen — Mrs. Kathryn Shaum, 125 Western avenue, today had asked police to investigate the theft of $23 from her home Monday night. She said the burglar apparently entered through the kitchen door and took the money from a purse on a table.

Car Damaged—Vandals caused heavy damage to a car owned by Miss Norma Miller, 51 Henry street, yesterday at the parking lot at the Westinghouse plant where Miss Miller is employed, police said. Windows were broken, wires were ripped off the motor, and the air was let out of all the tires.

Dogs Attack Children — Two Mansfield youngsters were bitten yesterday by dogs while the children were playing near their homes, police reported. Joyce DeHart, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas DeHart, suffered a wound on her left hand, and Robert Hatzfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hatzfeld, 178 Marlow road, was bitten on the left leg.

WARNING

ONLY THREE DAYS TO GO!

AFTER September 20th, any driver who depends on the argument, "I HAVEN'T GOT ANYTHING", to get him off when his car inflicts injury or causes damage, is in for an unpleasant surprise.

EVERY PERSON suffering injury or damage KNOWS that under Ohio's new law it is only necessary to secure judgment against a driver to collect, BECAUSE—

A driver, who loses his driving rights through failure to pay a judgment, will SOON realize that FIVE YEARS is a long period of time to be denied the right to drive, and SHORTLY he will pay off GLADLY in order to regain that right.

While the cost of judgments, legal aid, and court actions can come HIGH—the price of proper insurance against such costs is VERY LOW.

Protect what you own, what you hope to own, and keep your driving rights, by securing the necessary protection at once!

YANKS WEATHER GRAVE CRISIS NEAR SALERNO

On the Italian front, Berlin's ersatz victory cocktail backfired as American troops continued battling to expand their narrow Salerno bridgehead 24 hours after Nazi broadcasts asserted that the Allies were attempting to escape by sea.

While the United Nations radio at Algiers said the Allies were pouring more equipment into the flaming battle sector and that the unloading of supplies was proceeding on schedule Berlin itself backed down on yesterday's claim that Fifth army forces were abandoning the bridgehead "in complete disorder," and now gave this version:

Other developments at-a-glance:

RUSSIA—Red armies threaten great hydro-electric power center at Dnieperopetrovsk, advance within 80 miles of Ukraine capital at Kiev. Moscow says Germans fleeing in disorder toward Dnieper river defense wall. Russians capture 300 more villages.

Coincident with Turkish reports that the British Ninth army had left its bases in the Middle East—presumably for a thrust into the Balkans via Crete, Greece or Albania—authentic accounts told of rising ferment in the Balkans, sweeping new successes by Yugoslav guerrillas and fierce fighting between German and Italian troops in the Dodecanese islands off Turkey.

A summary gave this picture:

YUGOSLAVIA—Partisan fighters were reported to have seized more than 100 miles of the Dalmatian coastline in Nazi-occupied Yugoslavia, on the Adriatic sea opposite Italy, and occupied a large area in the northern province of Slovenia which had been previously held by Italian troops. Two guerrilla divisions were said to be marching toward Serbia and there were reports of large-scale fighting in Bosnia.

DODECANESE ISLANDS—Ankara dispatches said German forces, using dive-bombers, and tanks had defeated 40,000 Italian troops holding the Dodecanese group.

RUMANIA—A state of "near crisis" was reported developing, with Premier Antonescu's Nazi-dominated regime losing control.

BULGARIA—Alarm over Italy's surrender heightened amid growing agitation for a break with Germany.

An Algiers broadcast said 8,000 Italian troops fought the Germans in a three-hour battle at Trento in northeast Italy 40 miles from the Swiss frontier and Italian railway workers were reported striking at Turin, Milan, Genoa and Bologna.

Nazi Propagandists Change Their Tune

LONDON—(AP)—The German propaganda machine radically changed its tune today not only admitting that the Allied forces in the Salerno bridgehead had not been evacuated but were offering 'resistance' near the coast under cover of naval guns.

Yesterday the Germans said warships were being used to cover a withdrawal.

Today's Nazi communique continued to assert the Allies were suffering heavy losses, but the German radio in its mid-day news bulletin today made no mention of the Italian front. Yesterday it had issued an endless stream of victory reports.

The toning down began last midnight when a Nazi commentator observed, "The Allies have got their teeth into Salerno and even the most experienced soldiers find it difficult to push them back into the sea."

Berlin also broadcast a Stockholm dispatch which said German reports on the beginning of the evacuation of the troops of the Fifth army have not yet been confirmed.

Expected to Reveal Fall of Nazi Bases

MOSCOW—(AP)—Premier Marshal Josef Stalin was expected to announce the capture of Bryansk, south-central front stronghold and possibly the subsidiary bases of Nezhin and Romny on the approaches to Kiev, in an order of the day today marking the beginning of the third month of the Soviet summer offensive.

(Reports reaching London of street fighting in Novorossisk indicated that Black sea naval base also may fall, collapsing the Nazis Caucasian bridgehead.)

The Germans already have acknowledged the evacuation of Bryansk and Soviet front reports said the Red army occupied the western portion of the city yesterday after forcing the 500-yard-wide Desna river.

Famine Specter Roams Nazi Italy

BERN, Switzerland—(AP)—The specter of famine hangs over Rome and the Nazi-occupied cities of Northern Italy, dispatches from the Italian frontier said today.

Nazi authorities in Rome broadcast a proclamation telling the Italian people that "after the treason of Badoglio and the rupture of the treaty of alliance between the Reich and Italy, the German military have taken Italian territory under their protection."

The proclamation admitted resistance had occurred "even in Rome" to German occupation but declared that order now had been restored. It ordered all persons to deliver their firearms to German authorities by today or be shot.

The Swiss telegraphic agency dispatch from Chiasso reported that Nazi parachute troops had taken up positions in St. Peter's square and added that the fate of Pope Pius XII and that of other high church prelates who had taken refuge in Vatican City is at present unknown.

Fascist Radio Fails To Produce Ex-Duce

LONDON — (U.P.) — "Fascist Radio" broadcast a series of proclamations today which purported to set up Benito Mussolini as supreme head of a new fascists government of Italy.

The broadcast came only three days after the Germans claimed to have rescued Mussolini from imprisonment on an Italian mountain top and seven weeks and three days after his removal as premier by King Victor Emmanuel III.

Mussolini himself did not speak over the station.

FINDS ITALIANS HATE INVADERS

bare to the waist, were reported patroling roads radiating from Milan arresting all men between 18 and 50 for concentration at the central Milan station—which was patroled by Tiger tanks—later to be shipped off in sealed box cars to unknown destinations.

Como, the center of the area through which I traveled, was flaming with war spirit. I saw women and children helping their menfolk dig trenches in the various sections of the city itself and especially along the sector facing in the direction of Milan.

The rail station "Notre Milano" was patroled by bersaglieri who looked surprisingly gay in their plumed helmets. Carabinieri in swallow-tailed Napoleonic coats marched in the nearby streets. They allowed me to pass undisturbed—even saluted occasionally.

Disguised as a mountaineer with heavy boots, knapsack and some food, I left Chiasso at 3 a. m. Tuesday with a guide who knows every inch of the frontier passes. He should for generations his ancestors have been smugglers.

If I got caught, I planned to play the role of a lost mountain climber.

In a heavy rain we trudged through the woods and bushes, reaching Vacallo in 25 minutes and Sagno an hour later. After a short rest we pushed on for two hours until we reached the slopes of the Bisbino mountains.

Ten minutes later we arrived at a three-yard high wire fence dividing Switzerland and Italy. The guide calmly cut three strands, poked a wooden pole through, forced up the other wires and told me to crawl through. Small bells atop the fence jingled as I scrambled onto Italian soil.

The guide crawled under the wire and the bells tinkled again. I asked if the frontier guards might not hear them. He chuckled: "No chance of an Italian sentry in this weather."

We went down the mountainside toward the hamlet of Piazzola, a cluster of seven houses. The rain stopped. The guide took me to the home of a friend, who gave us tea, bread and red wine. I gave my host a chocolate bar, which pleased him tremendously.

Proudly he showed an old hunting gun, and said he had been appointed a member of the civilian armed bands formed in the Milan-Como area district. He had 25 cartridges, he added.

I offered him some money but he refused firmly when he learned I was an American.

We went down the mountain and across barren fields and in half an hour were at Piazza. We saw not a single Italian soldier and no sign whatever of the Germans.

The guide knew his business. He took me to a friend, who worked out an ancient Ford with charcoal and off we went. We passed a barracks, but no soldiers until we reached the Central Piaggi Cavour where a few cavalrymen in full war kit were basking in the sun. They took no notice of us.

The first thing I noticed was that the Piazza Cavour gardens had no flowers. Peas, beans and potatoes had been planted in the gardens.

About 10 a. m. I strode through Como undisturbed. It seemed as calm as when I last saw it in the summer of 1935. The people went about their daily tasks. Some men loitered about the streets. Later I learned that their idleness was caused by the closing down of silk factories which made parachutes because of a strike.

The shops were open and the housewives circulated through the markets where the principal wares were vegetables. There were lines before the few butcher shops that were open but fish seemed plentiful.

I paused before a movie house showing a Laurel and Hardy film. Children crowded open-mouthed around the display posters.

A policeman eyed me suspiciously. I must have looked extremely dirty even for an Italian mountain climber. With a show of confidence I did not feel I went on by.

When I returned to the Piazza Cavour my guide was there with two other men, one a suspicious looking character with closely cropped red beard. The guide hailed me and in a loud voice introduced me as "un amico Americano," scaring the devil out of me.

The men seemed pleased to meet me. They asked when the Allies were coming, and said the Italians were eager to fight the Germans. Our bearded friend took us to lunch at a little place in the Via Indepenita in front of the postoffice.

He said he spent four years on Ponza island for his anti-Fascist feelings and was released after Marshal Pietro Badoglio came to power. While he was there he was told that Benito Mussolini had arrived at Ponza but he was not permitted to see the duce.

He had heard the German report that Mussolini had been taken away from the Italians by the Germans.

Gen. McNarney Talks Before Senate Group Deliberating on Draft Policies.

the apparent overage was caused by the fact it is necessary to induct some 75,000 men a month merely to keep the army up to current strength, because of discharges, casualties and similar losses of effectives.

"Any curtailment, reduction or postponement of an army of 7,700,000 on Dec. 31, 1943, will necessitate a change in our strategical commitments," McNarney testified.

"Whoever initiates such a change must assume the grave responsibility for ignoring the considered judgment of our military leaders arrived at after careful and prolonged studies."

Congressional agitation for exempting fathers from the draft was tempered today by military reverses in Italy and reports that President Roosevelt is preparing to oppose any such legislation.

Action on the Wheeler no-father draft bill likely will be delayed at least until next week while the senate military committee quizzes top-ranking army and navy chiefs on the need for more fighting men.

Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director.

With the exception of Marshall, all were slated to testify today. The army chief is expected to appear Monday.

Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.), author of a bill already approved by the committee to defer the induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers for the remainder of this year, told the senate he did not object to the hearings but served notice he would call up his measure for debate and vote at the first possible opening.

He was temporarily stymied by other legislation which had the right of way and which may consume considerable time. Unless congress acts, the induction of fathers on a nationwide scale is scheduled to begin Oct. 1 or shortly thereafter.

President Roosevelt disclosed at a news conference yesterday that he has been discussing the father draft question with congressional leaders. One thing might be made clear he said—the fact that if a man is in a essential war industry he would not be drafted.

Cass township 12 mills, Shiloh, 17 mills, Franklin township 12.60 mills, Bellville 17 mills, Lucas, 19 mills, Plymouth 15.60 mills, Springfield township, 12.80 mills, Sandusky township 12.80 mills, Shelby, 15.80 mills, Troy township 15.10 mills, Worthington township 11.60 mills, Butler, 17 mills, and Weller township, 12.80 mills.

Wolfe who is secretary of the county budget commission said Mansfield schools were granted $678,885 for 1944 operation purposes approximately $5,000 less than the board of education requested.

Shelby and Shelby schools were more fortunate, receiving all they asked for in their budget requests. The city will get $84,600 and the Shelby schools will receive $133,900 an increase of $7,000 over their 1943 allocation.

Madison township schools took a slash of nearly $9,000, asking for $105,150 and receiving $96,290 which is $7,000 more than the township schools got this year.

Monday some bombers and fighters which the Japanese had moved in on airdromes at Dagua were surprised in a similar line-up by Liberators which set 20 of them ablaze.

Demand Jap-Free Korea and Formosa

WASHINGTON—(AP)—China's first major declaration of policy on postwar territory in the Far East, voiced by Foreign Minister T. V. Soong, called today for complete eradication of Japanese influence in strategic Korea and Formosa.

Japan annexed the Korean peninsula in 1910 but patriots have fought Nippon's domination ever since and still have a "Free Korean" organization.

Formosa, an island between Japan and the Philippines, was ceded by China after the Sino-Japanese conflict in 1895.

Soong laid down this tentative blueprint of Chinese aims at a press conference yesterday.

He told reporters Japan was constantly bombarding Chungking with peace proposals growing in liberality as the Allies exert more military pressure on the Japanese.

But China isn't having any of this, Soong indicated.

Fliers In India Told to Go to It

NEW DELHI—(INS)—Allied airmen in India were told today that the campaigning season against the Japs is about to begin and the fliers were told to "go to it."

The challenge was delivered in an address by Air Chief Marshal Sir Richard Pierse, commander of air forces in India. He said, "A very large air force has been built up in India. We have covered the face of India with airdromes and great training establishments and an enormous organization for maintenance, repairs and salvage."

partment of a detour of State Route 13 around the airport site until federal and state funds can be set up to re-locate the route, probably after the war.

The mayor was in Columbus yesterday to confer with highway officials on the airport project, but the highway department wasn't ready to announce where the detour will be, he said. It is expected to follow the Olivesburg road, a state highway, northward past the airport and then go westward to the present route.

Mayor Locke said he would write to Congressman J. Harry McGregor today, asking him to "go to bat" for the city in its attempt to get federal aid to supplement state money for the Route 13 re-location.

In any event, the present Route 13 probably will be kept open for local traffic until late next year many months after the airport work is scheduled to get under way, the mayor said.

THREE FLEE

Bind Engineer to Make Escape From Lancaster

LANCASTER—(U.P.)—Three youthful inmates of the Boys Industrial school here escaped early today after obtaining a gun and binding the school's engineer and another inmate in the boiler room.

Supt. Cletus Scheetz said the escaped youths were Arthur Plan, 16, and John Steeds, 16, both of Cleveland, and Donald Alltop, 17, of Sabina.

Read MAGAZINE'S PUZZLE CONTEST

READ Magazine will pay five hundred cash prizes totaling $25,000.00 in its new, delightful Puzzle Contest. Series No. 1 (Puzzles 1-6), and full official rules of the contest, are printed below—enabling you to enter the contest at once and start on your way toward winning $10,000.00, $5,000.00, $2,000.00, $1,000.00 or any other of 500 cash awards.

Thrilling as it is to win $10,000.00, $5,000.00, $2,000.00, $1,000.00 or any of the attractive prizes offered, we nevertheless believe there is another great pleasure in store for those who enter this contest. We refer to the added reading enjoyment that will come to those who become acquainted with READ.

Each month's issue of READ contains from thirty to forty articles of outstanding merit. These thirty or forty articles win their place in each month's issue of READ because the editors choose them as the finest, most interesting, most informative or most enjoyable that can be obtained.

To warrant inclusion in READ, an article must be interesting, clearly written, factful and thoroughly understandable upon the first reading. Sexy subjects are taboo in READ. When you read READ, you read for pleasure, regardless of whether you are reading about science or a radio crooner, political economy or football, medical marvels or night clubs.

Factfully, sincerely, brightly, READ brings you each month what its editors consider the pick of the most interesting and enjoyable reading matter they can obtain.

Every contestant who competes in this contest in accordance with the rules, will receive a subscription to READ magazine to the full extent of the contestant's participation in the contest.

It is our hope that no matter how large a prize you win, you will consider your acquaintance with your new friend READ as an equally important winning in the contest.

Can You Solve Our Puzzles?

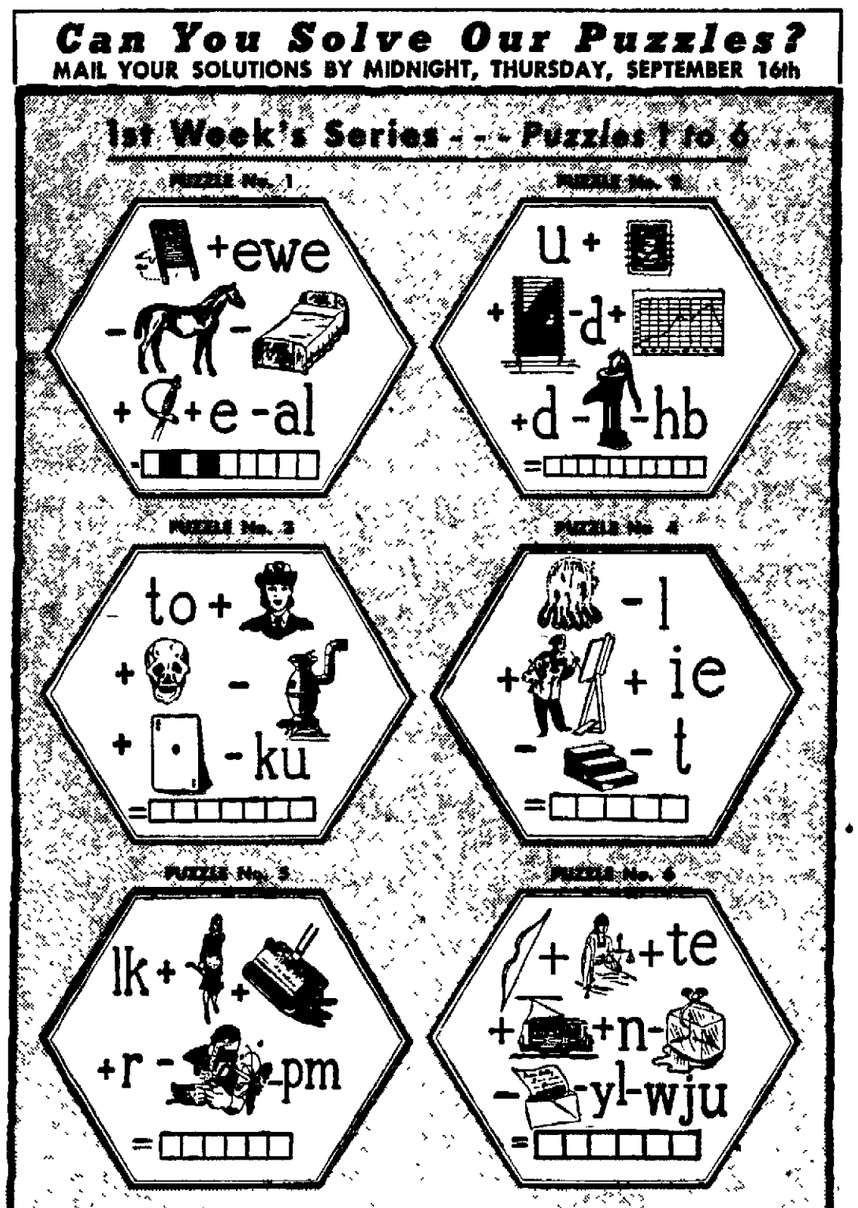
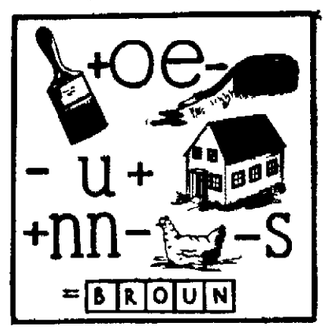
1st Week's Series - - - Puzzles 1 to 6 - - -



HOW TO SOLVE THE PUZZLES:

Be sure to read this explanation carefully before you try to solve the 6 puzzles printed at the left.

(SAMPLE PUZZLE)



Note the Sample Puzzle above. It was purposely made easy to show you how to solve the puzzles. Notice that there are several objects illustrated and also that there are several plus and minus signs, which means that you add or subtract. Let's solve the puzzle together. The first object is a BRUSH. Therefore, write down the letters B-R-U-S-H. Next you are told to add the letters OE, and by so doing you have B-R-U-S-H-O-E. Then you see a minus sign followed by a HOSE, which means that you deduct the letters H-O-S-E. That leaves you B-R-U, from which you are then told to deduct U, leaving you B-R. Next you are told to add HOUSE and the letters NN, giving you B-R-H-O-U-S-E-N-N. From that deduct HEN and the letter S, and you have B-R-O-U-N, the last name of the late famous columnist, Heywood BROUN.

THE RULES—Please Read Carefully

1. READ Magazine's Puzzle Contest is open to everybody, with the exception of employees and relatives of employees of the organizations specified in Rule No. 9.

2. A group of 120 puzzles will be offered for solution. The solutions to these puzzles will be well known names, among which may be names of persons or places, books, movies, plays, or songs—in fact, any names whatever.

3. A First Prize of $10,000.00 in cash or in War Bonds and 499 other prizes totaling $25,000.00 will be paid to the 500 persons who by their submissions achieve the highest scores in the contest in accordance with these official rules.

4. The puzzles of this contest are divided into Series of six puzzles each. Puzzles 1-6 comprise Series Number One. Puzzles 7-12 comprise Series Number Two; etc., etc., the Group consisting of twenty series. The first Series of six puzzles bears the submission date of Thursday, September 16, 1943. Each week, for eleven weeks, there will be one or more Series to solve as provided in these Rules. Contestants should solve the puzzles and should submit solutions to same in accordance with the submission dates printed on each Series. In submitting the solutions for any current Series, a contestant is privileged to submit solutions for preceding Series. Thus a contestant entering the contest during the time for submitting the Second Series should submit both the 1st as well as the 2nd Series, and so on. All Series must be qualified in accordance with Rule No. 7.

5. Contestants are to mail their solutions EACH WEEK. Once you enter the contest, the additional puzzles, as issued, will be mailed to you. Copies of any publication containing any of the puzzles can be examined free at the Public Library, and tracings of the Entry Form will be equally as acceptable as Entry Forms clipped from a newspaper or circular. Solutions should be addressed and mailed to Contest Editor, READ, 1780 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y. Solutions should be mailed in accordance with the provisions of Rule No. 4.

6. Neatness will not count. Do not decorate your answers. Just submit your solutions in accordance with the rules. In case of ties, if two or more persons tie in submitting the correct solutions, then the first two or more prizes will be reserved for those contestants and will be awarded in the order of accuracy of the submissions of those contestants to a first, and if necessary a second, tie-breaking Group of puzzles, divided in Series exactly like the first Group. In case a second tie-breaking Group of puzzles is necessary, contestants eligible to solve same will be required to accompany their solutions to this second tie-breaking Group of puzzles with a letter of not more than 200 words on the subject: "What I Like Best About READ." All tie-breaking Series must be qualified in accordance with the provisions of Rule No. 7. Only in case ties exist after tie-breaking puzzles have been checked will the letters be considered, and in that event they will be judged on the basis of originality in description and general interest. In case of final ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded. Upon entering the contest, the entrant is asked to realize that the sponsors anticipate that a large number of persons may enter the contest and that a large number may solve one or two or all three of the Groups of puzzles, and that the sponsors will not make known the number of persons competing in any phase of the contest, irrespective of how large or how small that number may be.

7. To qualify for a prize the contestant is required to accompany each Series of six solutions with 15 cents in coin. Each contestant who submits a complete Group of solutions for this contest in accordance with these rules will get a year's subscription to READ Magazine. Any contestant who becomes eligible to submit and who does submit a group of qualified tie-breaking solutions, will get an additional year's subscription to READ Magazine. Those who for any reason drop out of the contest will nevertheless receive READ to the extent of their total remittances at READ's regular mail subscription rates.

8. This is a contest of skill. Upon entering the contest, the contestant agrees that prior to being awarded a prize he or she will sign and execute under oath an affidavit attesting that he or she has not bought nor exchanged answers in this contest, nor used answers bought, exchanged or supplied. The contestant further agrees that the decision of the Contest Editor, in all matters affecting the conduct of the contest, the acceptance of submissions, and the time limits established for the acceptance of submissions under unusual circumstances arising through no fault of the contestant, the making of awards, and the measures invoked to insure individual effort in fairness to all contestants, shall be final and conclusive.

9. Submissions that are unsigned or illegible will not be considered, nor will READ be responsible for submissions or communications unduly delayed, or not received, or lost in the mails either from READ to the contestant or from the contestant to READ. Barred from winning any prize in this contest are all employees and relatives of employees of READ Magazine, or its affiliates, also the American News Company, and the Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation.

10. All solutions should be addressed to Contest Editor, READ, 1780 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y.

YOU SEND IN YOUR ANSWERS EACH WEEK IN THIS CONTEST

In this contest you send in your answers EACH WEEK. Each six puzzles are considered a SERIES. Puzzles 1-6 comprise Series Number One; Puzzles 7-12 comprise Series Number Two; etc., etc. Thus you solve and submit one or more series of six puzzles EACH WEEK in accordance with the mailing dates specified for sending in the various Series.

Your solutions to Puzzles 1-6 (Series No. 1) should be mailed on the ENTRY FORM at the lower right before Midnight, Thursday, September 16th.

As soon as your Entry is received, we will immediately arrange to MAIL you the succeeding Series of puzzles, as issued. (Series No. 2 will be published on Friday in this newspaper for your convenience. Additional puzzles of the contest will be sent you by mail, as previously mentioned).

ENCLOSE 15 CENTS IN COIN WITH EACH SERIES OF ANSWERS

When sending in each Series of six answers, enclose 15 cents in coin. By submitting solutions to the puzzles, thus qualified, you become entitled to receive READ Magazine for such period as is covered by the total of your remittances and in accordance with READ's regular published rates. Thus you will receive READ Magazine in accordance with Rule No. 7, irrespective of any cash prize won.

WHY THIS CONTEST IS CONDUCTED

Each month there remains on the newsstands a valuable number of unsold copies. What with war-time restrictions on paper, it is READ's purpose, by means of this contest, to direct these unused copies to good use by increasing our number of mail subscribers, and at the same time reducing the number of unread and unsold copies left at the newsstands. At the same time YOU are afforded the opportunity to win $10,000, $5,000, $2,000, $1,000 or any other of the 500 prizes to be awarded.

HELL AND HIGH WATER

By William McLeod Raine

CHAPTER XXII

Willie May waited until her father was looking over the grass in one of the pastures before she carried forward her determination to show Bob Lee how little regard she had for his advice. Then she ordered her favorite mount saddled. While the stable boy was tightening the cinch, Bob rode down the lane leading from the mail box. As he swung from the saddle, she told the boy loudly enough so Bob could hear that she would be gone several hours; she expected to ride up to the rim rock.

Bob hesitated before he spoke. This was a challenge and he realized any opposition he might offer would be rebuffed. He said calmly, "Would you like Bill to go with you, Miss Broderick?"

"No, I prefer to go alone."

Bob did not dispute her decision. There was little chance that the Hickorys were hiding so close. They would be back in the hills much further than she would be apt to go. She had practically told him to mind his own business. That might be a good idea. He tied his horse and walked into the bunk house. From the window he watched her ride up the road. His eyes followed the horse and rider until they were a dot against the horizon. Long after they had disappeared he worried about her. Perhaps he ought to have trailed her. But she would have seen him and been angry. In the hill pockets above the rim rock she could elude him easily.

Later Bob busied himself greasing a wagon and then ran some horses up to the corral. His mind was disturbed. When Broderick came in with two of his cowboys, Lee rode to meet him. He told the rancher that his daughter had started for the rim rock country two hours before and was not back.

"Did she take Bill with her?" the cattleman asked.

"No. Said she wanted to be alone."

Broderick frowned. "I told her not to take any long rides alone. I've a mind to send that girl back to the Lampasas. She's getting too bullheaded." He was talking to vent his irritation. Just now he intended to keep her under his eye. If he sent her back to Texas she and Sugg might elope.

"I wonder if I ought to ride out toward the rim rock to meet her, maybe," Bob suggested.

"I don't reckon it's necessary. She'll come noseying along soon. It's most supper time."

Bob cut across to the rim rock trail.

Broderick went in and had supper. That over he lit a cigar and sat down on the porch.

Before the first long ash had formed he was on his feet, his eyes searching the flats leading to the hills. Willie May ought to have been back long ago. Something was wrong. She might have had a fall. She might have met Sugg and not noticed how late it was. She might be lost in the dawned cow-backed hills. He began to pace the porch, stopping every now and then to let his gaze comb the landscape.

Darkness came, and with it neither his daughter nor Bob. He went to the bunk house and routed out his riders.

While the men were running up their horses Timmy Boggs came down the lane at road gait. He announced that Greer and Cass Hickory had ridden in to the trading post at Four Corners last night and bought supplies. They had threatened to kill Judson if he divulged that they had been there. Timmy had dropped in little later to see the storekeeper on behalf of Cleburn Hightower and Judson had blurted out that they had just left. The trader was still trying to dodge trouble, but things had turned against the Hickorys and he dared no longer hold back the information.

Timmy had scouted the trail of Greer and young Hickory. He had found a sheepherder who saw two armed men with rifles riding toward the rim rock country. Though he had not been able to cut sign of them today, he believed that the Hickory gang were holed up somewhere in the hills back of the J A B range.

Broderick blamed himself for not having taken Bob's warning more seriously. He dispatched a man to Atoka with orders to get word to Whit Carson that the train robbers were probably in the rim rock country. Timmy Boggs and half a dozen of his men set out to comb the hills.

Back in the hills it had been a beautiful day for a ride, a day of sunshine with lakes of shadow in the folds of the uplands. Light breezes rippled the long grass of the prairie, and though it was late summer the call of the meadow lark throbbed out occasionally from the roadside.

But Willie May was not attuned to the loveliness of the afternoon. She had come out in rebellion, to show Bob Lee he could not control her actions, even through her father.

This mood dominated her for the first few miles, but as she drew nearer the rim rock it gave way to a dull despair. She no longer had any faith in Hiram Sugg. Going back over the past, her mind had picked up trifles that were straws in the wind and all pointed in the same direction. Behind his friendliness she had always sensed something secret and mysterious in the man. It had added to the fascination he had for her, but now she knew it boded ill.

Bob had been right, but it did not make her admire him more. He was too smug, too self-satisfied. Except for this hostility to Bob, she would have turned back to the ranch.

Even since she had been five years old she had enjoyed riding. A gallop over a wide plain, the wind and sun at her back, sent the blood racing through her veins. Yet today she could find no pleasure in it, none of the warm exhilaration of youth eager to savor all the experiences life had to offer.

She found a break in the rim rock and rode up through a draw to the ridge above. The country beyond was broken and rough, the tumbled hills crowded one another. On one of these she saw cattle grazing and moved up the slope to read the brand. As she expected J A B was on the left shoulders.

Just beyond her rose a hump in the hills, and from back of it came the unexpected nickering of a horse. Her pony pricked up its ears. Surprised, she rode over the brow and looked down.

When it's time to change coupons ... it's time to change your oil!

Get on a wartime oil change basis! Let your gasoline ration book be your guide!

Have your oil changed every time you go to a new coupon number—for two important reasons!

First—Even with reduced driving, your oil is constantly exposed to impurities, dust and other abrasives carried through the air, and at the same time, to the deteriorating effect of partially burned fuel particles.

Second—With today's short trips at lower driving speeds, your engine does not get hot enough to "cook off" water formed by combustion and condensation. This water accumulates in your crankcase and further contaminates your oil.

So don't take chances. When you've used your last No. 7 coupon, be sure to have your oil changed at once!

PUT YOUR CAR in the hands of any Shell Dealer displaying Ground Crew Wings. "Ground Crew" Service is an essential war service designed to help your car outlast the duration. Patterned after the rigid maintenance routine of the U. S. Army Air Forces, it treats your car like a plane!

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Mansfield News-Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

MANSFIELD, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1943.

Seems odd that nothing much is heard of Tommy Manville between marriages.

An advocate of lotteries argues that Benjamin Franklin sold tickets in drawings—but nothing in the record indicates that he ever BOUGHT any.

Motorists Who Cause Accidents

OHIO MOTORISTS who haven't worried much about causing accidents, because they knew themselves to be "judgment proof," will have reason to sit up and take notice of a new law that becomes effective next Monday.

Under this law a motorist against whom stands an unsatisfied judgment for damages resulting from a traffic accident is subject to a five-year suspension of driving privileges.

It has frequently happened that a motorist who is the direct cause of an accident is not only a reckless driver but is financially irresponsible, leaving the victim no recourse other than to obtain a worthless judgment.

With a law that will bar the offender from driving a car for five years there is at least a likelihood that more motorists will act to protect potential victims by carrying liability insurance.

While this cannot be construed as compulsory insurance it should have the effect of inducing every motorist to make sure that, either out of his own resources or by means of reliable insurance, he will be able to pay any judgment that may be entered against him in connection with a traffic accident causing injury to other persons or damage to property.

Allied Strength Under Test

WHATEVER bright hopes some Americans may have entertained for quick ending of the war in Europe, following the surrender of Italy, it now becomes clear that it was German military strength, rather than decision by the Italian government, that was to be taken into account and that a show of Allied military superiority will now be necessary if Italy is to be cleared of invaders and the stage set for further offensive action on the continent.

If, by any chance, Hitler's armies should prove the stronger, the process of setting up a puppet government, with the "rescued" Mussolini restored to power, would be a comparatively simple process under Nazi procedure.

This outcome, however, is not to be anticipated, although reports of the intensity of fighting in southern Italy presages longer casualty lists than any to which Americans have thus far become accustomed.

Study of the situation in Italy, which represents only one small phase of the whole global war picture, gives emphasis to the importance of maintaining and increasing Allied fighting strength.

This is no time for complacent belief that the war is almost won and that there can be a slow-down in civilian efforts. It is time for:

Maximum war production, with war workers on their jobs 100 per cent.

Full compliance with gasoline and other rationing regulations to assure abundant supplies for the armed forces.

Faithful keeping of all former agreements to buy War Bonds and decision to buy at least one extra bond during the present Third War Loan campaign.

Patriotic determination to keep all War Bonds purchased, instead of cashing any of them—except in dire emergency.

Every bond bought—and kept—not only provides money necessary to win the war but is an investment in the future of America and the better future of the individual investor.

Considering 'Miracle Drugs'

THERE'S "a catch" in so many things that perhaps there is one in connection with those marvelous new drugs, penicillin and clavacin, in which there is so much medical interest just now. These drugs, it should be understood, are not yet on the market, and may not be generally obtainable for some time. But when they are finally available to every doctor, and possibly in every drug store, what then? May people not grow reckless about their health and morals, because some ailments will be so easily cured?

That is a question which has arisen in human history every time the medical profession has made a great discovery. Always it turns out that it is not relevant. Some people always have been reckless about health and morals but medical gains seem to have little influence on the proportion of reckless ones to those who show signs of intelligent caution. Moral education on the responsibility of the individual to his neighbors and himself also has some effect.

Soldiers Find Time To Read

WAS there ever an army so intelligent, so literate, and so well-informed, as this nation's present armed forces? The question arises from reports of the New York public library. An outsider might think Uncle Sam was conducting a military university. The men are insatiable, when there is time and place to read.

What kinds of reading? Well, first of all comes the dictionary. What civilian would imagine a choice like that? Yet the men know what they're about. It is the foundation of intelligent reading. Next in popularity is the atlas, or what the fathers and grandfathers of this army called "geography." The men want to know where places are, and where they're going.

But "literature" also has its place, and a big one. Librarians say the armed forces follow the tastes of civilian life, plus of course the added zest for travel knowledge. They seem to make a bee-line for the camp library to read magazines and books. And the average taste it is reported, is surprisingly high.

Newspapers, naturally, are always in demand, especially papers from home. But along with them go fiction, technical works, history and historical novels, classic and modern poetry, drama, philosophy, science, travel, mathematics, and so on. As a result, time is not wasted. Thousands of the men are thus adding to their education.

Happy thought: Imagine how many more people would be writing articles on postwar planning, if it wasn't for the paper shortage.

It was Pope who said: "Words are like leaves; and where the most abound, much fruit of sense beneath is rarely found"—as in a senate filibuster, probably.

"MELANCHOLY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN!"

Mackenzie Advises Axis Leaders To Ponder Words of Cordell Hull

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

HERR HITLER, Signor Mussolini, General Tojo—meet Mr. Cordell Hull.

Our secretary of state has ideas which are intimately associated with your common welfare. He states that one of this country's war aims is to achieve an iron-clad peace for the world, backed by nations ready to use force to maintain it.

He says "If there is anything on which all right-thinking people are agreed, it is that the monstrous specter of a world war shall not again show its head."

Now you three war-lords, as instigators of the present global bloodbath, should be deeply interested in Mr. Hull's declaration. He didn't say so specifically, but his thesis certainly seems to contemplate putting all of you out of circulation, because there can be no possible assurance of peace so long as you remain a tlarge (or do you remain at large, Signor Mussolini?)

Of course, Messrs. Hitler and Mussolini, you wouldn't remember it, but back at the time of the fateful Munich conference I stood close enough to the pair of you so that I could have tickled both your noses with a feather.

Since that day I've often pondered on how much anguish could have been saved the world had you both met violent ends then.

Still, that wouldn't have been the right solution. It would have been trying to right one evil by doing another. As a matter of fact, putting you out of circulation doesn't necessarily mean taking your lives, though I'm sure that you who hold life so cheaply wouldn't mind facing a firing squad or yet the hangman.

However, it strikes me that the LEAST it can mean is depriving you of your liberty so long as you live. Maybe hanging is too good for you and that, as one of my colleagues remarks, you should be locked up and forced to listen continuously to phonographic records of your bombastic speeches.

Anyway, your fate is something the Allies must decide, and the quicker they do it—and implement it—the better.

YOU'LL remember, fuehrer, how the Allies in the last war shouted themselves hoarse over hanging your predecessor in crime, the Kaiser. Then everybody got cold feet. The Kaiser lived long and well, until old age led him to his reward.

There's a far different atmosphere this time, though, because we know it's no good beating armies if we don't also eliminate the instigators of the aggression. The Axis armies are merely tools which are used by the war-lords, who reproduce their kind, generation after generation.

To ensure peace we Allies must get at the roots of the evil. In the case of Germany, Herr Hitler, we must eliminate from society in one way or another not only your wicked self but all your captains—like Goering, Himmler and Goebbels.

But we shall have to dig much deeper than that, because the real and perpetual mainspring of German aggression is Prussian militarism. We must eliminate the Prussian war lords as well—and they won't be hard to name.

There's a very similar situation in Japan, General Tojo. There militarism rules. You and the other militarists are guilty of multiple aggression and untold atrocities. We're going to get you, Tojo, and your co-murderers.

As for Italy, Signor Soft Underbelly, we want you and a few other cowardly gangsters like your son-in-law Count Ciano. That's not asking much.

A most satisfactory solution of the problem (if any) growing out of your elimination from society would be to hold Allied courts martial as fast as you criminals are rounded up. We want no Roman holiday made of your trials—no theatricals, no fuss or feathers, no piddling about. We need dignified and speedy courts martial which will send you all to your just punishment — whatever that may be.

Dave Boone Says:

THOSE recent train wrecks have been eclipsed by the war news but they shouldn't be forgotten. There's a line in the press about the probe now and then, but nothing to make the public feel safer.

* * *

Common sense would seem to require that these extra speedy passenger trains cut their time away down for the duration.

* * *

* * *

I'd reduce the pace of the de luxe passenger fliers down to a crawl if it will prevent these horrible wrecks. Most of the folks demanding the super service aren't going anywhere important.

* * *

I'm suspicious of that story of parachute troops rescuing Mussolini. I think he got away as a free balloon.

How It Started

—By JEAN NEWTON

Radar.

Its syllables breathe mystery, the unknown, the supernatural; actually it is just another weapon, no longer "secret," which American ingenuity and cerebral power have perfected to keep the war thousands of miles from our homes.

Radar is a high-frequency wave device which spots the enemy "through fog, clouds, storms or darkness."

The word is an abbreviation of the composite Radio-Detection-And-Ranging—and so sensational are its routine accomplishments that among the adjectives used matter-of-factly to describe it are "fabulous," "miraculous" and "impossible."

America's scientific brains are 100 per cent at war; it would be heartening to be able to say the same of the brains and brawn of the rest of us.

It Says Here:

—By D. K. W.

The National Alcoholic Beverage Control association was told yesterday that the nation faces a new era of gangsterism as a result of the liquor shortage. There was some hue and cry for "better enforcement."

* * *

Well, a good time to stop gangsterism is before it gets started. But you can't very well use sub-machineguns or even income tax blanks before the racketeers get their damage pretty well done.

* * *

The best kind of "enforcement" will be to convince the guy with his foot on the rail that the bartender isn't using smaller glasses and boosting the price of bottled beer, that the manufacturers aren't cutting the proof without cutting the price, and that the man who wants to take a bottle home, is getting just as fair a share of the supply as the man who wants to re-sell it.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Italians May Give Valuable Aid To Allies In Kicking Out Nazis

WASHINGTON—Washington officials who know Italy say the length of Nazi military resistance there depends as much on the Italian people as on Nazi soldiers.

Except for the first few days after Mussolini's fall, Italians have been apathetic. They have seemed content to let the Germans and Allies fight the battle while they stood on the sidelines.

But that was when the battle was localized in Sicily. Now the battle has come to the mainland, and an armistice prevails with the Allies.

This should be the moment for release of all the pent-up feeling against Germany—a feeling traditional in Italy. To Italians, Germans, Austrians, Bavarians are all alike—foreign peoples who swarm through the Brenner Pass to molest them.

Meanwhile, German armies cannot fight without trains, telephone and telegraph, food supplies, water, shelter, fuel and the endless variety of facilities and equipment which an army requires. Though the Germans have placed white-collar officials in all strategic activities, the man who drives the locomotive, or pumps the water, or dispatches the telegram is an Italian.

This opens up tremendous opportunities for sabotage—from hindering troop movements to dropping poisin in Nazi spaghetti.

More Farm Machinery.

AGRICULTURAL officials have been closeted for several days working on an announcement which will be good news to farmers. They are planning to relax the rationing of farm machinery.

Relaxation will take two forms. One will be to permit farm machinery companies more latitude in distributing their products to different parts of the country. The other will be to take certain machines definitely off the ration list.

Although plans are not quite complete, it is probable that most farm machinery will be unrationed from now on except tractors, combines, hay bailers, beet lifters and similar mechanized equipment. In general, tractor implements will be taken off the list, though tractors will stay on.

It will be necessary for farmers to go to their ration boards to get permission to buy certain farm machinery, but this will be only for the purpose of making sure that they are legitimate farmers and really need the equipment. The old system of strict rationing on most farm machinery will go by the boards.

Hitherto, farm implement companies have been required to distribute their products equally throughout the United States, so that some counties where little wheat is raised have received as many binders as counties in the middle of the wheat belt. Or in some cases, too much corn machinery has been sent to counties where little corn is raised, while corn belt counties have been slighted.

Train Wrecks.

THE CURRENT wave of tragic train wrecks has recalled to War Production Board officials an unpublished conversation long before Pearl Harbor at which steelmen Leonard Replegle urged the railroads to order new rolling stock immediately.

This was in the days when Bernie Baruch and Leon Henderson were warning that war was certain and pounding the table that American industry should get ready for it. Secret hearings were held by the National Defense Council, at which Replogle outlined a long list of strategic materials which should be purchased and equipment manufactured.

Having been one of Baruch's righthand men in 1917-18, Replogle had a good idea of what the nation would be up against in this war; begged the railroads to purchase 400,000 cars and 4,000,000 tons of rails immediately. Railroad men objected.

"Well, you remember what happened in the last war," countered Replogle. "You didn't have enough cars. You couldn't haul enough coke to the mills, the mills couldn't make steel, and the government took over the railroads."

But nothing was done. After Pearl Harbor, Replogle was in the office of perspiring J. J. Pelley, railroad representative in Washington. Pelley threw up his hands. "Don't tell me I told you so," he said.

Railroads ordered a rush of cars, but had to take many wooden freight cars with steel underpinnings. Even wooden passenger cars have been pressed into service on branch lines. Wrecks on main lines are attributed to worn out equipment, faulty inspection, and lack of skilled manpower for both repair and inspection work.

Too Late.

ADMINISTRATION political advisers are anything but happy about Frank Gannett's farm conference being staged in Chicago this week. Some of them wanted Secretary of Agriculture Wickard to jump in earlier, hold a farm conference which would side-track Gannett. But there was too much inertia.

The Chicago farm gathering is an illustration of what Southern Democrats can do when they line up with Northern Republicans. In this case it was Texas' Agricultural Commissioner J. E. MacDonald who was busy as a bird dog working with Gannett in rallying state agricultural commissioners at Chicago.

Administration leaders already consider themselves weakest in the farm belt and the Chicago pow-pow will make them more so.

A Farmer's Diary

By CALVIN A. BYERS

Night Sounds

AND THE night shall be filled with music," said Longfellow.

This evening about eleven I stood in the shadow of the moonlight and listened to the rhythmic notes that rolled so naturally down from the deep woods and the nearer slope. The voice of the katydid is becoming rare, but hidden in the dark green foliage are other members of the nightly orchestra.

They never seem to tire, but the mysterious volume of mingled tones flows like the voice of many waters. Dew is heavy on the grass. The night is cool. The tall maples are as motionless as the towering hill above them, yet hidden in crevices or narrow crotches, an unseen choir of tiny voices brings a deep and constant rhythm that beats against my senses like tiny waves upon the ocean beach when all the distant surface is at rest.

Last night I laid me down full length in the roadside ditch and listened to the true crickets' song. For a second, silence all about me, then just beyond my elbow, a shrill high note; another, a lower treble chimed in just before my face. In a moment I counted twenty different voices. Some were so high that I hardly heard them, others lower and more deliberate. Each time I moved just slightly, silence reigned. Then they began again, with untiring vigor.

I stayed in this position for ten long minutes. No theater could provide so rare a concert. The setting was a roadside ditch with sprays of goldenrod, perennial peas, white and calico asters hanging low about me. Stars twinkled from the deep blue dome above

Why do these creatures sing all through the night—for no matter what hour I awaken, they are still at it. How many voices are there too small for human ears to hear? Does Sargent, the dog, hear more than I when he stands alert, with pricked up ears, to listen? Do they sing to hear their own voices, or to attract a mate, or simply for social chat? I wonder.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Saturday, Sept. 15, 1923.

Four horses belonging to Harvey Lemley were burned to death in fire that destroyed barn on Mansfield avenue.

Son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Todd, 112 Sherman avenue.

James Elroy Kelly, 38, proprietor of the Leader restaurant, corner Main and Fifth streets, died at his home on East Dickson avenue.

Miss Florence A. Baer and Cecil E. Cramer were married at First Lutheran church by Rev. H. C. Roehner.

William Boyce, 75, Franklin township farmer, died at his home near Amoy.

Thirty-two Mansfield women motored to Marion to represent Westbrook Country club in golf match at Marion Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keckler went to Cincinnati to attend convention of Odd Fellows grand lodge.

Henry Mercer, Woodland avenue, reported his car had been stolen from parking place on Walnut street.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Tanks were first used in warfare, Sept. 15, 1916. The British first sent them into action near Combles, France. They broke through the German third line, and captured Flers. Coucelette and other positions, but the complete and crushing surprise they could have dealt the enemy was not realized.

Flash-Back on North Africa and Sicily Tells About American Entertainers.

WASHINGTON—There are a few little African items I'd like to wind up before this column stops and goes on furlough.

For example, I never got around to telling you about Bob Hope when he was over there. I ran across Bob and his crew in Sicily; in fact for a couple of days we did the highlights and shadows of one bomber Sicilian city in such hilarious conjunction that it looked as though I were becoming a member of the troupe.

There are certain dissenters to this policy of sending American entertainers overseas to help brighten up the lives of our soldiers. Now and then you'll hear some officer say, "After all we're over here to fight, not to be entertained. Don't they know there's a war on?"

But it has been my experience that the most confirmed users of such phrases are usually a good many miles behind the lines. If it's at all possible to give the troops a little touch of America through these movie stars, then I'm all for it. I can certainly testify that the boys enjoy and appreciate it.

Bob Hope is one of the best that ever went to Africa. He has the right touch with soldiers. He can handle himself as well in a hospital full of suffering men as before a rough audience of 10,000 war-coarsened ones.

When Hope goes into a hospital he's liable to go up to some poor guy swathed in bandages, and instead of spreading out the old sympathy he will shake hands and say something such as, "Did you see my show this evening, or were you already sick?"

At their regular show, Hope carefully explains the draft status of his troupe, so that the soldiers won't think they're draft dodgers. He says his singer, Jack Pepper, has been classified 5-X, or "too fat to fight." Hope himself is in class 4-Z, meaning Coward." And their guitar player, Tony Romano, is Double S Double F, meaning "Single man with children." Sure, it gets a laugh.

THE HOPE troupe, which included lovely Frances Langford as the fourth member, really found out about war when they were over there. Every time they'd stop in a city, there'd be a raid there that night. Actually it got to looking as though the Germans were deliberately after them.

I was in two different cities with them during these raids and I will testify that they were horrifying raids. It isn't often that a bomb falls close enough that you can hear it whistle. But when you can hear a whole stick of them whistling at once, then it's time to get weak all over and start sweating. The Hope troupe can now describe that ghastly sound.

They had the distinction, while in Sicily, of playing closer to the front lines than any other entertainers, and of playing to the biggest audience. One afternoon they did their outdoor show for 19,000 men. Everywhere they went, both in public and in private, the Hope gang was popular—mainly because, clear down to Frances, they were regular and natural.

If this column appears in Hollywood, let it be taken as legal testimony in verification that no matter what narrow-escape story Bob tells when he gets back, it's true.

* * *

I DON'T know General Eisenhower very well, because I was at the headquarters city very little during the African campaign, and had no occasion to bother him with my presence anyhow.

But I do admire him greatly, and I suppose just to salve my own vanity and to be able to say I'd seen him recently, I went in to say goodby the day before I left Africa.

The general is an observant man. He both flattered me and put me at ease by congratulating me on some recent ones of these columns which he'd read in Stars & Stripes. He left his desk and sat in a big lounging chair over in the corner while we talked.

I told him (and with sincerity) that I'd seen our army grow in Africa from an insufficient, green, bumbling organization up to the point of perfection where now, unless he was able to tell me something wrong with it, I would have to go home without being able to criticize a thing over there.

The general replied that actually there was lots wrong with it, as there is bound to be with any army or any organization. He said if you could sit at his desk for 18 hours it would seem to you that everything was wrong with it. But I know that in that informal remark the general was taking the mechanic's view, and that actually he knows its a pretty well oiled machine by now.

As I left his office I said half-jokingly, "Is there anything you want me to tell the folks at home when I get there?" He grinned and said, "Oh, just tell them to stick together."

General Eisenhower, in my opinion, is a fortunate man for America. From an unknown he has grown with his own army, making mighty few mistakes on the way, until now he has built up, on top of his native ability, those two vastly important attributes of long experience as chief commander, and complete confidence in him among all the armies he directs.

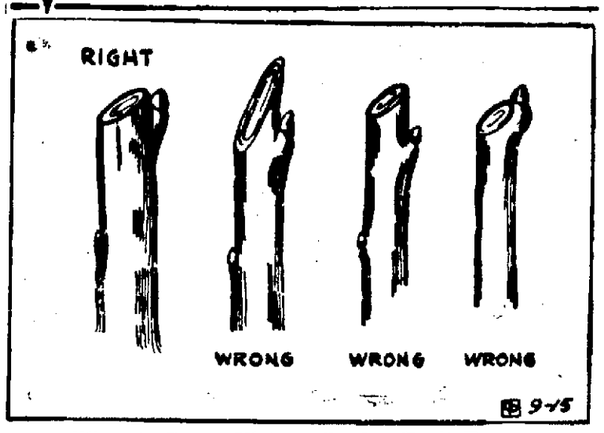
Today's VICTORY GARDEN-GRAPH



When to Prune Victory Garden Fruit Trees.

By DEAN HALLIDAY
(Released by Central Press Ass'n.)

Among Victory gardeners who have set out fruit trees, as well as those who have had home orchards for some little time, the question frequently arises when to prune.

As a general answer, it is safe to say that with most orchardists and Victory gardeners, pruning can best be done during the winter or early spring months.

When the pruning is for the removal of small branches, the early spring season is probably as satisfactory as any other. In fact, pruning even during late spring, about the time or just previous to the beginning of growth, is particularly advantageous for pruning of peach trees, because at that season, as a rule, all injury to the annual growth from winter-killing will be apparent.

With apple and pear trees, which suffer from winterkilling, the annual pruning can as well be done in February or March, in the north.

With the Victory gardener who has grape vines which he wishes to prune, it will be best to do the pruning during the late fall or early winter months. If the pruning of grapes is delayed until late in the winter or in early spring the vines are likely to produce a heavy flow of sap and lose strength through "bleeding."

PASTOR LIVES SONG TITLE

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass.—(U.P.)—"Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition" is not just a song title to a preacher here. The Rev. James H. For Security and Comfort Wear a DOBBS TRUSS

No Bulbs--No Belts--No Straps A CONCAVE PAD on a swivel controls the rupture at its source. A cross body pressure holding the muscles just like the hand. Your condition will immediately improve.

Bulbs or any egg-shaped pad poking into the opening acts as a dilating wedge and will cause the rupture to enlarge and get out of control.

Amazing results in building STURDY BODIES!

2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

YOUNG people, especially those of grammar and high school age, are prone to be deficient in stomach digestive juices and red-blood.

A growing-person who is operating on a 65 to 70% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped.

In such cases Nature needs extra help. Organic troubles or focal infection, if they exist, must be corrected. Tissue foods must be digested and rich, red-blood must be present to build sturdy bodies.

SSS Tonic is especially designed to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient . . . and to promote those STOMACH JUICES which digest the food so the body can make proper use of it in tissue building and repair.

These two important results enable the body to make use of the food as Nature intended. Thus you may gain a keen appetite . . . firm flesh . . . body energy . . . mental alertness!

Build Sturdy Health and Help America Win

Thousands and thousands of users have testified to the benefits SSS Tonic has brought to them and scientific research shows that it gets results—that's why so many say "SSS Tonic builds sturdy health—makes you feel like yourself again." At drug stores in 10 and 20 oz. sizes. ©S.S.S.Co

P. T. A. RESUMES FALL MEETINGS AT SCHOOL

West Fifth Street Association Has First Fall Session In Charge of Joseph Sziraki; Award Prizes for Victory Gardens.

JOSEPH SZIRAKI presided at the first fall meeting of members of West Fifth Parent Teachers association, held Tuesday night at the school, when prize winners in victory gardens and the harvest show were announced.

Mrs. George Hart, victory garden chairman, conducted the program, presenting each young gardener and his exhibit.

Mrs. Lewis Hartman, of the Johnny Appleseed Garden club presented the awards to the following persons:

Robert Ackerman, Dispina Nickas, Margaret Esto, Janice Cotton, Bob and Don Hart, Milka and Boris George and Margaret Still. Honorable mentions were given to Gene Cahall and Robert Hasenzahl.

The West Fifth street P. T. A. gave awards to all children completing gardens. Included in that group were Beverly Arnold, Richard Bishop, Mary Butler, Donald Bradley, Billie Bride, Anetia Burkett, Glenn Danals, Jeannette Drury, Joan Hallabrin, Robert Hempfield, Patty Heilman, Virginia Knecht, Carol Merrell, Wilson McLean, Janice Powers, Margaret Rust, Jay Stover, Danny, Lanny and Shirley Sziraki and Malcolm Umbarger.

Mrs. Hart announced that 16 prizes were won in the junior exhibit of the victory harvest show at the armory. West Fifth placed first in the school exhibit.

First prizes at the victory harvest were won by Wilson McLean, Beverly Arnold, Milka George, Margaret Esto, Boris George, Robert Ackerman, and Shirley Sziraski.

Honorable mention awarded to Despina Nickas, Malcolm Umbarger, Margaret Stull, Beverly Arnolds and Boris George.

These awards were on display with the children's exhibits, which were arranged in tiers with a background of lovely vari-colored gladioli.

Mrs. E. Chronister will head the membership drive for the ensuing year.

Serving on the garden display committee were Mr and Mrs. J. Sziraski, Mrs. W. McLean, George Hart and W. W. Blauser.

During the brief business meeting, members decided to give recognition to the class with the greatest percentage of parents attending each meeting. The Sight Saving class was the winner for the September meeting.

Mr., Mrs. Hughes Celebrate Their 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hughes, Cook road, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Tuesday evening at their home, with 17 guests, sisters and brothers, and their families honoring the couple.

Games were the evening's diversion. Prizes were won by Mrs. Lloyd Hughes and Mrs. Carl Ortman.

A two-course luncheon was served at a long table attractively decorated with a white and silver floral arrangement and two-branched candelabra

Guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Hughes with gifts of silver. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have three children, Ned, of Cleveland, Olive Joan a student at North Central college and Norman, at home. They also have one grandchild, Roger Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes exchanged wedding vows in the Evangelical parsonage in Bentonridge

Mansfielder Has Wedding In Australia

Mansfield friends of Pvt. Clifford A. Johnson, who is stationed overseas, will find of interest his marriage, which is being announced, today, on his first wedding anniversary.

Pvt. Johnson took as his bride, Miss Lorna Cusack of Brisbane, Australia. The couple exchanged vows in the Presbyterian church, Sept. 15, 1942.

The bride wore a lightt blue costume with black accessories. The couple was unattended. The bridegroom attended Mansfield Senior high school, and is now in the army air corps.

Pvt. Johnson and the new Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Brisbam.

Mrs. Fred Foss Entertains Club

Mrs Fred Foss, 204 South Franklin avenue entertained nine members and one guest, Mrs. R. C. Brown, of the Hope club. Mrs. Brown was welcomed as a new member.

War stamps were purchased by each member during the brief business meeting. Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. T. E Schwartzkopf and Mrs. T. C. Gregg.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Jackson, Oct. 4. Luncheon was served at a long table appointed with a pastel color scheme.

Child Club Has First Meeting

The Child Guidance club opened its fall season with a family picnic this week at Maple Lake park The committee in charge included, Mrs. Paul Ackerman, chairman; Mrs. Charles Freehafer, Mrs. Willian Linton, Mrs Gaylord Herring and Mrs. J. M. Lehman.

Fifty-five attended. Games were played by the children The next meeting will be held Sept 27, at the home of Mrs. L. J. Weaver, 137 Bartley avenue Mrs. Paul Ackerman will have charge of the program at that time.

Frocks With Chinese Influence

TROUSER PLEATS add graceful fullness to the skirt of this Hollywood-designed dress in purple wool. Belt and buttons are bright with gilt embroidery and jewel trim. High double loops under the chin make a becoming new collar line. Purple color is high style.

TWO-COLOR MAGIC: A soft, moss green combines with black in this new rayon crepe dress presented for fall by David Leonard. The collarless neckline and side buttoning suggest the Chinese influence in a new way. Other new notes are apron front, smooth bodice.

St. Paul's Guild Has Meeting In Church Parlors

The St. Paul's Guild held its regular meeting in the church parlors, Tuesday at 7:45 p. m. Mrs. E. G. Pankow presided at the business session, and introduced Mrs. Gordon Schwan, who spoke on "Drycleaning In War Times."

During the business session, plans were made to hold a fall festival on Oct. 20 with Mrs. Paul Lee as general chairman. The diversion of the evening was a white elephant sale. Guests included Mrs. Mary Lowe, and Miss Florence Hoover.

Mrs. Clifford R. Hagedorn and Mrs., Victor Geib were welcomed as new members.

The hostesses, Miss Estella Arras and Miss Margaret Baker, served the group at two long tables centered with bowls of garden flowers and two lighted tapers.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 12 at the church, with Mrs. Stanley Blackstone, Mrs. George Berg as hostesses and Mrs. Ray Burkholder in charge of devotions.

"Pitfalls of Love"

(A Sequel to Marriage Meddlers)

By ADELE GARRISON

There was poignant anguish in Ronald's voice as he flung his question at my father. With a sympathetic quickening of my pulses, I knew that his always latent fear of the connection his idolized only sister, Carolyn, might have with the mysterious disappearance of her dear friend Marion Morton, to whom he was betrothed, had suddenly sharpened.

Dicky, seated next to Ronald, put out his hand and gave Ronald's shoulder a sympathetic grip.

"Steady, old chap!" he said in what was almost a whisper, and I saw Ronald relax a bit. But he was still poised as if for a sudden leap from his chair, as he looked with fixed attention at my father who began to speak, slowly and distinctly.

"That is what we do not know, Ronald," he said. "That is what we must find out. Marion may be shielding Carolyn, or she may think by her going willingly with the gangsters she may be averting danger to her mother or her stepfather or someone else dear to her. Nobody knows what arguments they may have used. But one thing you may depend on, dear boy. In the face of these new developments, we shall neglect no slightest angle of this problem."

Ronald looked as if he had other questions ready on his lips, but my father's manner forbade interruption.

Spencer Continues.

"And now," he said, "I will go on to the last of the revelations Mary just has made to us."

He did not look at Ronald, but I saw the boy's cheeks flush at the reproach with which my father's voice was infused.

"Of course, we realize what she means by understanding our signals," he said "She must have seen those personals we put in all the papers telling her that we had received and understood her code letter to her mother. Also, of course, this 'wigwag' message back to her that she wants us to send can only be another 'personal' That's the best we can do now."

He swept us all with a glance and I knew that he already had mapped out his campaign, and was ready to hand each of us our assignments.

"I am going back to your suite, Margaret," he said, "and summon three of my most trusted men. I shall tell them nothing over the telephone, of course, except that I need them. But shortly after they reach here, we shall have laid the foundations for 24 hours a day espionage of that restaurant where Marion encountered the waiter, Crump.

"I shall rent an apartment or a room with windows looking directly at the restaurant," he continued. "If they risk another visit there with her—they evidently are trying to give her a little recreation, but I doubt if they will repeat the visit for several days—we shall have force enough on hand to snatch her from the gangsters and put her safely into that room."

"You don't mean to nab the gangsters at the same time!" Dicky put in, evidently so astonished that he could not keep silent.

"That depends," my father replied, frowning slightly at the interruption, but I knew that Dicky was not in the least remorseful. "If my case is complete, I shall have them taken; if not, I shall have them trailed in their headlong flight away from the scene They probably will put up a desperate struggle to keep Marion, and when they realize they cannot they will flee precipitately and that is where my trackers will prove their worth."

"You see," he went on, with sternness in his voice, "Marion, dear as she is to us, is only one angle of this problem. We must get to the center of the web where crouches the spider who is directing the search for Jack Bickett, for Georges, and who is responsible for the attempts on the lives of Olga and Olina. These all are also minor objectives in a conspiracy to strike at the vital defenses of the country."

His voice was ringing with fervor as he finished Then it dropped to ordinary tones again.

"That is why, Richard, I may not be able to have Marion's captors seized when we rescue her, but must have them trailed instead And, of course, we must not count prematurely upon her rescue. It may be several days before we discover her whereabouts."

I saw Ronald's eyes widen in horror, and knew that he was thinking as I was, or that part of the code message which had spoken of her fear that the "pirates" were planning to make her "walk the plank." But when he closed—them as if he could no longer keep them open, I knew that he had recognized, as I did, the futility of protest My father would do everything in his power to rescue Marion but he could not be hurried.

And then unexpectedly, he addressed the desperate boy.

"Ronald," he said, "will you please write a letter to Carolyn immediately?"

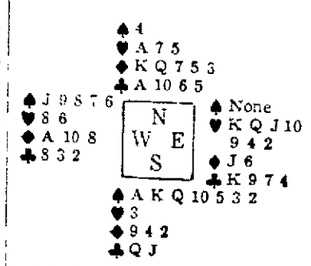
"The Authority on Authorities"

MAKE HIM WASTE ONE

Trumps bunched against the declarer in the hand of one defender can terrify many players. Others take such a line-up in stride and make the opponent waste one of them by forcing a lead at the close of the hand which compels the waste of an apparently certain defensive trick Making such tactics work depends generally on eliminating other suits. As the dangerous defender finally gets into the lead, he can do nothing but lead one of his trumps.



(Dealer South East-West vulnerable)

South	West	North	East

With different vulnerability, East might have tried a sacrifice of 5-Hearts. South wished he had when he first realized his situation after winning the first trick with the heart A and leading to the spade A. It appeared as if the defenders would score a trick each in diamonds and clubs, plus two in spades, but the spade losses were cut to one by a nice end-play.

To the third trick, South led his club Q, letting the K win and ruffing the returned heart The club J was overtaken by the A and the 10 used for a diamond discard. The diamond K was taken and the Q led, which West took with the A. He returned the diamond 10 for a ruff by South, who then put West in the lead. Holding only the spade K-Q-10-5, he led the 5 to West's J-9-8-7. The latter could get only one trick and then had to pitch away from his J into the K-Q-10, making the contract.

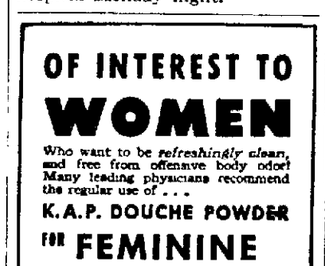
Tomorrow's Problem.



(Dealer: West. North-South vulnerable)

What is South's best try for an extra trick at 6-No Trumps in rubber bridge, after West leads the spade 2?

HOROSCOPE

For Thursday, September 16.

Fair and steady progress should be made on this day, with things on which firm foundations have already been laid. If they are in connection with public ideas or spectacular strokes of genius. The test of practical and constructive skill or mechanical ability may be at issue and determine the measure of public approbation. This might take the form of a gift or pension. Be conservative at home.

If It Is Your Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year in which there may be some solid, enduring and worthwhile token of public or community appreciation. This is probably for skill, originality, ingenuity or creative work, developed by industry, and perseverance. In domestic, social or romantic associations sustain harmony and pleasant relations.

A child born on this day may be steady, persistent, practical, and possess brilliant ideas or mechanical skills insuring it worthwhile success and tokens of appreciation. It may enjoy gifts or inheritance.

"This War Will Become Bigger and Tougher . . . During the Long Months to Come"

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Italy has fallen – but the war is not over and you know it! Think of Berlin and Tokio – think of the men dying at this moment.

Can we, you and I, afford to let them down – to turn their battlefront victory into a homefront defeat? Let's buy more War Bonds than ever . . . let's back up their victory with ours – the success of the 3rd War Loan!

There are battles coming – tough, bloody, hard-to-win battles – before this war is over. And it's the last battle that counts. We've got to back up our fighting men . . . we've got to buy War Bonds with every dollar, every dime we can scrape up.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT said it, as Commander-in-Chief:

"I say that we Americans will not be satisfied to send our troops into the fire of the enemy with equipment only equal to that of the enemy. We are determined to provide our troops with overpowering superiority of quality and quantity of arms and armaments . . ."

Our fighting men will do their job – it's up to you, personally, to keep their victories safe by buying War Bonds NOW with every dollar you can – not with what you'd ordinarily save or invest, but more – every bit more you can manage.

World's Safest Investments

United States War Savings Bonds–Series E: gives you back $4 for every $3 when the bond matures. Interest: 2.9% a year, compounded semiannually, if held to maturity. Denominations: $25 $50, $100, $500, $1,000. Redemption: any time 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2½% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969: readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, redeemable at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated September 15, 1943; due December 15, 1969 Denominations: $500, $1,000, $5,000 $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Price: par and accrued interest.

Other securities: Series "C" Savings Notes; ⅞% Certificates of Indebtedness: 2% Treasury Bonds of 1951-1953; United States Savings Bonds Series "F"; United States Savings Bonds Series "G".

FREIGHTERS ARE HARDY AND FAST

ST. HELENS, Ore.—(INS)—Take it from the man who sails them, those Liberty freighters are hardy vessels despite the speed with which they are built.

Herbert Thompson of St. Helens, a first assistant engineer, calls the ships "splendid boats" after many months of sailing aboard Liberty freighters exclusively in South Pacific war zones.

"They'll take all you can cram into the holds besides a pile on deck and they'll still behave in nasty seas," Thompson said. "Besides that they can maintain a speed of 12 knots forcing the engines."

HEALTH QUIZ

	YES	NO
Do you have poor digestion?	☐	☐
Do you feel headachy after eating?	☐	☐
Do you get sour or upset easily?	☐	☐
Do you feel tired—listless?	☐	☐

Now everyone knows that to get the good out of the food you eat—you must digest it properly. But what most people don't know is that Nature must produce about two pints of the digestive juice—liver bile—each day to help digest your food. If Nature fails—your food may remain undigested—be sour and heavy in your digestive tract.

Thus, it is simple to see that one way to aid digestion is to increase the flow of liver bile. Now, Carter's Little Liver Pills start to increase this flow quickly for thousands—often in as little as thirty minutes. When bile flow increases, your digestion may improve. And, soon you're on the road to feeling better—which is what you're after.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's aid digestion after Nature's own order, when taken as directed. Get Carter's Little Liver Pills today—at any drugstore—only 25c. You will be glad you did.
